

ORDINANCE No. 183911

*Extend special rates and charges for public works permitting services through FY 2010-2011 (Ordinance)

The City of Portland ordains:

Section 1. The Council finds:

1. On December 17, 2009, Council adopted Ordinance No. 183419 and authorized special rates and charges for public works permitting services received from January 3 through June 30, 2010.
2. The special authorization was necessitated by a comprehensive set of Council-directed reforms of public works permitting procedures that took effect in January 2010. The Council authorized special rates and charges for a transition period that was expected to end on June 30, 2010. Thereafter, new rates and charges were to be adopted annually in the same manner as other City rates and charges.
3. From January through May, 2010, the City has experienced insufficient public works permitting activity to support a thorough cost of service analysis that is required to establish new rates and charges. The public works bureaus require additional experience with the new permitting procedures to complete such an analysis and recommend new rates and charges.
4. Given the current and projected levels of development activity, the public works bureaus recommend an extension of the special rates and charges for public works permitting services through Fiscal Year 2010-2011.
5. As with Ordinance No. 183419, this ordinance does not alter current City practices to recover the costs of construction management and inspection associated with public works permit projects.

NOW, THEREFORE, the council directs:

- a. The Council suspends the existing public works permitting fees authorized by City Code Chapters 17.24 and 17.32 for all new public works permitting services provided from January 3, 2010 through June 30, 2011.
- b. The Council adopts the public works permitting fees set forth in Exhibit A of this Ordinance for all new public works permitting services provided from January 3, 2010 through June 30, 2011.
- c. This ordinance and the attached Exhibit A are binding City policy.

Section 2. The Council declares that an emergency exists because the current authorization for special rates and charges for public works permitting services are scheduled expire on June 30, 2010; therefore, this ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage by the Council.
