Title: Free for All Summer Sponsorship

Summary: This summer, Portland Parks & Recreation (PP&R) continues its tradition of offering free recreational opportunities for children and families in parks, pools, and community centers across the city.

From the Washington Park Summer Festival and concerts in neighborhoods, to Movies in the Park, Summer Playground fun, and more, the Free for All provides safe, healthy activities throughout the summer months.

This fabulous Free-for-All programming is made possible by lead sponsors who exemplify corporate citizenship in our community. In this short presentation we will honor our lead sponsors and announce the summer line-up.

Portland Parks & Recreation's Summer Free for All would not be possible without the generous support of many sponsors. Thanks to their support, families can enjoy free movies and concerts in their parks.

Other free activities coming soon:

- Summer playground program- a 104 year tradition- that includes drop-in sports, games, and other activities and a free lunch for ages 2-18.
- Free swim times at all outdoor pools.
- Family nights at community centers, and more.

Check it all out at PORTLANDPARKS.ORG - and, sign up for daily tweets (via twitter) for movies and concerts that evening!

Washington Park Summer Festival

Presented by DAIMLER

THU, Aug 5	DRUMS FROM TWO CONTINENTS An explosive evening of Japanese and Brazilian drumming and choreography featuring Portland Taiko and The Lions of Batucada - a powerful and dramatic kick-off to the Festival.
FRI, Aug 6	PORTLAND SUMMERFEST OPERA IN THE PARK Presenting a concert performance of Verdi's Il Trovatore featuring rising stars from across the country, including SummerFest favorites Richard Zeller as Il Conte di Luna and Mark Panuccio as Manrico.
SAT, Aug 7	JAZZ WOMEN A collection of unforgettable musicians, celebrating the enormous power of Portland's female jazz singers and instrumentalists. The Quadrphones, Janice Scroggins, Ward Griffiths, and Leah Hinchcliff will be joined by some of Portland's best female vocalists.
SUN, Aug 8	PORTLAND FESTIVAL SYMPHONY Under the inspired baton of Maestro Lajos Balogh, Portland Festival Symphony celebrates 30 years of free park performances introducing generations of children to the joys of classical music.
MON, Aug 9	TY CURTIS BAND Rockin' blues from one of Portland's rising stars. Powerful original music and an instant connection with the audience – young Ty Curtis and his band just won this year's Muddy Award for Best Regional Band.

TUE, Aug 10	CARRIE CUNNINGHAM & THE SIX SHOOTERS This vivacious, magnetic singer-songwriter will make you a fan in less than two hours. Her high-energy brand of down home country can range from bluegrass to alt country to western swing and keep people of all ages dancing.
WED, Aug 11	APPLE JAM An uproarious and tuneful trip down a different sort of memory lane. This Seattle sensation offers up a portfolio of all the Lennon/McCartney songs the Beatles never recorded themselves. You'll swear it's 1964 all over again!
THU, Aug 12	LOVENESS WESA, KGOTSO AFRICAN DANCE & THE BANTUS BAND Rooted in the irresistibly danceable music of Southern Africa, particularly her native Zimbabwe. Loveness Wesa's original Afro-pop blends the past with the present. Traditional African dancers and drummers will highlight the roots of this beloved marimba tradition.
FRI, Aug 13	DO JUMP! Under the creative direction of founder Robin Lane, the Do Jump "actorbats" offer up a unique blend of extremely physical theatre, dance, acrobatics, dynamic visuals, and live music by Klezmocracy - a trio with its own following that always wows their audience.
SAT, Aug 14	FELICIDADES It's become a tradition for closing night - salsa and calypso get the whole crowd up and dancing. Felicidades brings together a collection of Portland's most masterful musicians for a stunning finish to the 2010 season.
