PUBLIC INVOLVEMENT

8) Was public involvement included in the development of this Council item (e.g. ordinance, resolution, or report)? Please check the appropriate box below:

☒ YES: Please proceed to Question #9.

☐ NO: Please, explain why below; and proceed to Question #10.

Projects developed by the public are included in the work plan for the SW Watershed Resource Center position. Also, years of public involvement are included in the Fanno and Tryon Creek Watershed Plan and CIP predesign including input from an advisory committee, citizens at open houses and interest groups like the Tryon Creek Watershed Council and Neighborhood Associations. The SWNI Program Manager has provided the outreach for these plans and continues to provide venues for input and feedback during project design and construction.

9) If "YES," please answer the following questions:

a) What impacts are anticipated in the community from this proposed Council item?

Greater access to information, greater likelihood of concerns being met during projects, partnerships for stewardship projects, and increased potential for multiple benefits from projects. Support (technical assistance, grant writing, etc.) for on the ground neighborhood restoration projects.

b) Which community and business groups, under-represented groups, organizations, external government entities, and other interested parties were involved in this effort, and when and how were they involved?

Groups that have had ongoing input into BES programs and projects in SW Portland and are anticipated to work with BES through SWNI this year include: SWNI Neighborhoods: Bridlemile, Hayhurst, West Portland Park, Multnomah, Markham, Marshall Park, Collins View, Arnold Creek, Crestwood, Hillsdale, South Portland and South Burlingame; Tryon Creek Watershed Council, Metro, Oregon State Parks, SW Trails PDX, West Multnomah Soil and Water Conservation District, and others.

c) How did public involvement shape the outcome of this Council item?

Public involvement is a critical element in the design and long-term viability of BES projects.

d) Who designed and implemented the public involvement related to this Council item?

Jennifer Devlin and Anne Nelson - BES and Sylvia Bogert - SW Neighborhoods, Inc.

e) Primary contact for more information on this public involvement process (name, title, phone, email):
