Presenter name: Eileen Roe

Purpose of proposed legislation and background information:

The Lents Stabilization and Job Creation Collaborative brings diverse stakeholders together to address the Johnson Creek 100-year floodplain's FEMA-designated flood hazard areas and Endangered Species Act impacts within the Lents and Powellhurst-Gilbert neighborhoods.

Kate Brown, Governor of the State of Oregon, has designated the Lents Stabilization and Job Creation Collaborative as an Oregon Solutions Project.

Governor Brown appointed State Rep. Jeff Reardon and Portland Planning and Sustainability Commissioner Michelle Rudd as the co-conveners, who will lead the multi-agency and stakeholder process in developing strategies and projects to preserve existing housing, enhance industrial lands for job growth, and mitigate and enhance floodplains along Johnson Creek.

Portland State University (PSU) will facilitate the project through Oregon Solutions, a unit within the PSU Hatfield School of Government

Financial and budgetary impacts:

The FY2016-17 budget includes one-time funding in the General Fund Special Appropriations for this agreement. The City now desires to enter into an intergovernmental agreement with PSU and Oregon Solutions in an amount not to exceed $310,000.

Community impacts and community involvement:

The Lents Stabilization and Job Creation Collaborative brings diverse stakeholders together to address the Johnson Creek 100-year floodplain's FEMA-designated flood hazard areas and Endangered Species Act impacts within the Lents and Powellhurst-Gilbert neighborhoods.
