BEFORE THE CITY COUNCIL FOR THE CITY OF PORTLAND, OREGON

In the Matter of Declaring a) Local Emergency) Resolution within the City of Portland)

WHEREAS: a winter storm of snow, ice, freezing fog and high winds has impacted the City of Portland, across the entire City;

WHEREAS, this emergency/disaster was caused by weather and compounded by our existing housing emergency;

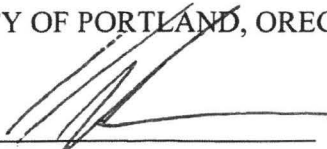

WHEREAS, the following conditions: emergency shelters becoming overwhelmed, transportation routes blocked, transit service disrupted, water mains damaged, resources for transporting vulnerable people becoming depleted, emergency workers unable to travel, downed trees blocking roads and causing power outages, and Bureau of Transportation resources being depleted, now exist in the impacted area;

WHEREAS, State statute, the Portland City Charter and Portland City Code serve as a basis for authorization to make an emergency declaration and emergency control in the public's interest;

IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED that I, Ted Wheeler, as Mayor of the City Portland, declare the area described in the first paragraph above, to be in a State of Emergency.

I further declare that the duration of the declaration of emergency shall be from noon on the day of December 31, 2017⁶, to and including noon on the day of January 14, 2017.

DATED THIS 11th day of January, 2017.
