

PERMITTED MINIMUNITIES

What?

A safe place

Fenced

50' x 100'

25 humans or less

Self-Governing

Mini-mobil houses

Community Agreement

When? Today: if government will permit us

Where? All Portland Communities identify 5 private and 5 public community sites

How? Start with one; when full, open another. We need approximately 50 sites.

Why? Creates a place where the unsheltered are safe, warm and dry. These are People.

Potential Rules

Weekly meetings of those who choose issues, pass with the 60 % vote.

Potential rules: no drugs/violence/theft/alcohol; quiet 10 pm-8 am.

This pattern of group rule is called 'Groupocracy'. The group sets rules and punishments.

Was is the maximum mini-mobil building size allowed?

Be nice to each other.

Enforcement at weekly meetings.

Expulsion for rule violation, appealable at group meeting.

Chores: 1) security 2) clean-up/trash 3) waste disposal 4) kitchen 5) donations

Absence without excuse for three days will result in one's things being packed-up and stored for 7 days, then given away.

Donations should be equally available, not stored.

Sign a community agreement and decide work to benefit host community.

CONSIDERATIONS: Human waste, compost, recycle, garbage, dry storage, water. water disposal, electricity, laundry, fencing, kitchen, donation area, building materials.

Homeless Population

In 8 years on the street, I had been counted in the homeless count one time.

To determine the accuracy of the count, I surveyed people for 2 weeks. First question to people who had the look: "Are you sleeping without shelter?" If they said yes, I asked if they were included in the homeless count.

shelterless people 75

included in Survey 15

Survey undercount 20% 80% of homeless not counted.

2011 - 1,600 in ^{APR} count (in count 600 not counted for x 5 refusing)
8,000 homeless
