Subject: National Court Reporting and Captioning Week 2017

Good morning! My name is Tevin Green. I spoke last year during National Court Reporting and Captioning Week with LNS and said a few things about my schooling for my future career in court reporting.

Now, I have since graduated and am now in the field I worked so hard to get to. I would love to have the opportunity to say a few things about how I'm adjusting, and how glorious it is to have a career I can find joy in just a few weeks after graduating.

I am 23 years old and have friends who either spent four years going to school for something to have a job now they can't stand, or have the four years of college, but can't find the right job post graduation. I am very blessed to be in the position court reporting has put me in, and would love the opportunity to briefly speak to that.

Thanks for listening!
