

2017 Women's History Month Calendar of Events

The 2017 Women's History Month theme "Honoring Trailblazing Women in Labor and Business," honors women who have successfully challenged the role of women in both business and the paid labor force. Below are many opportunities to honor and help celebrate the numerous achievements of women!

February 28, Tuesday

Popcorn and a Movie

Sista in the Brotherhood is a 20-minute, short film about a black tradeswoman who faces discrimination on a new, all white, male, job site. She must choose between making a stand or risk never being recognized as the skilled worker she has become. The film will be followed by a short panel discussion featuring the filmmaker, and Water Bureau employees, Shawna Gawthorne and Lisa Serrano. (Popcorn and refreshments provided) Questions? Ashley Tjaden

Noon-1:00 p.m., Portland Bldg, 2nd Flr, Auditorium

Brought to you by City African American Network Women's Empowerment in honor of Black and Women's History Months. Event is sponsored by the City Attorney's Office, and the Environmental Services Committee for Equity and Diversity.
