RE: Madden Fabrications presentation to Council on the Portland Loo

Dear Colleagues:

Since July 2014, Madden Fabrications has been the primary fabricator of Portland Loos. The City of Portland retains the trademark to the Portland Loo, and receives a royalty for every Loo that is sold.

There are now Portland Loos in 18 cities and three countries across the globe. The City has received more than $146,000 in royalties through this licensing agreement in the last three years. This private-public partnership has created good jobs here in Portland, and the demand for Loos is only increasing.

I have invited Greg Madden, President of Madden Fabrication, and his staff to present to Council to share an update about this very successful partnership.
