Purpose of proposed legislation and background information:

Portland United Against Hate is working with the Office of Neighborhood Involvement to build a rapid response system that combines reporting and tracking of hateful acts and provides protection and support to marginalized communities. The City of Portland dedicated $350,000 of special appropriation funding to support this effort. This report details how the grants were allocated among community organizations.

Financial and budgetary impacts:

N/A

Community impacts and community involvement:

The $350,000 will assist a diverse coalition of community based organizations and concerned citizens who are working to address the increase in bias incidents in Portland. The grant review committee was comprised of community members and City staff. The committee balanced many priorities in the review process, including geographic location, specific vulnerable communities served, as well as trying to fund as many groups possible within the allotted appropriation.
