Respectfully submitted,

Ted Wheeler
Mayor

Office of Mayor Ted Wheeler
City of Portland

Citizen Noise Advisory Committee Appointees Bios

Appointee: Laura Young

Bio:

Appointed to CNAC in 2011. Laura has also been elected by CNAC to serve in leadership roles and currently serves as Board Chair of the Cully Association of Neighbors, which is one of the close-in neighborhoods adjoining PDX. As a non-aviation and community organizer Laura has consistently brought her unique perspective to help inform the group's dialog and decision-making.

Personal Statement:

Since moving to the Cully neighborhood in 2004 I have become increasingly engaged in neighborhood advocacy and represent both the Cully Neighborhood and surrounding neighborhoods in many aspects of social equity, infrastructure development and livability concerns. I have been an active participant in the Cully Association of Neighbors (CAN) since 2009, serving as Land Use and Transportation Chair for six years, presently as the CAN Board Chair, and have represented the City of Portland as a member of CNAC since 2011. In my role, with CNAC I strive in all matters to present a fair and balanced perspective, both when addressing community concerns and in all aspects of advocacy on behalf of CNAC. During the years of my participation in CNAC I have experienced improved relationships between Cully, the surrounding neighborhoods and the Port as we have grown in our mutual depth and breadth of understanding both the impacts and benefits of living near one of the most lauded airports in the United States. Due to the Noise team's commitment to community involvement and dedicated long term volunteers we now enjoy highly collaborative partnerships focused on addressing community concerns in a positive and productive environment. For these reasons, I am honored to continue to serve my community and the City of Portland as a volunteer member of CNAC.

Appointee: Kelly Sweeney

Bio:

Appointed to CNAC in 2008. Kelly has served in a variety of leadership roles on CNAC and is currently the Vice Chair. For many years Kelly has led CNAC's public outreach efforts and on his own has appeared at over 100 neighborhood association meetings to introduce CNAC's role and offer presentations about our aviation noise program

Personal Statement:

I am again applying for consideration to remain a City of Portland representative on the Citizens Noise Advisory Committee to the Port of Portland. I am interested in continuation of my participation on CNAC; as my schedule and interest allow me to use my experience to effectively represent, fairly, my fellow Portland, neighborhood constituents. I have presented to more than 100 neighborhood Association meetings over the past several years. I believe I have been effective in both representing neighborhood concerns and complements to the Port and the Port's Noise limiting programs back to impacted and generally interested areas. I would honor the opportunity to continue my volunteer status for the City.

Appointee: Ron Schmidt

Bio:

Appointed to CNAC in 2014. Ron is a community advocate who also serves in leadership roles within his Hayden Island neighborhood, which is another of the closest neighbors to PDX. Ron is a regular participant in our public outreach events such as Sunday Parkways.

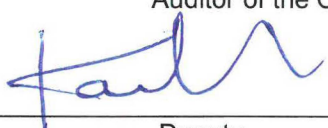

Personal Statement:

Resident of Portland since 1987 and this home since 1989, I have tried to give back to my community and make it a better place. Here are some of the volunteer positions I have held (others such as North Portland Neighborhood Chairs were spinoffs of the primary volunteer positions). I have worked hard, not only on local levels, but on state levels testifying on behalf of my community in the State Legislature multiple times. I feel I can represent the citizens of Portland well on the Citizens Noise Advisory Committee and ask that I be re-appointed.

Agenda No.
