

Portland Art Museum Concept Design

April 9, 2018

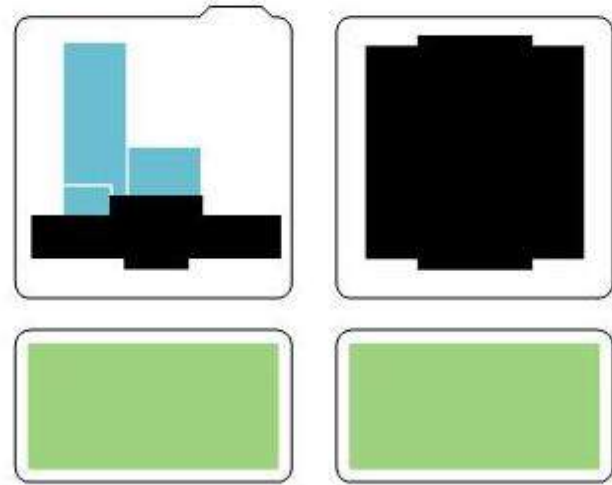

VINCI | HAMP
ARCHITECTS

Hennebery Eddy Architects

1932

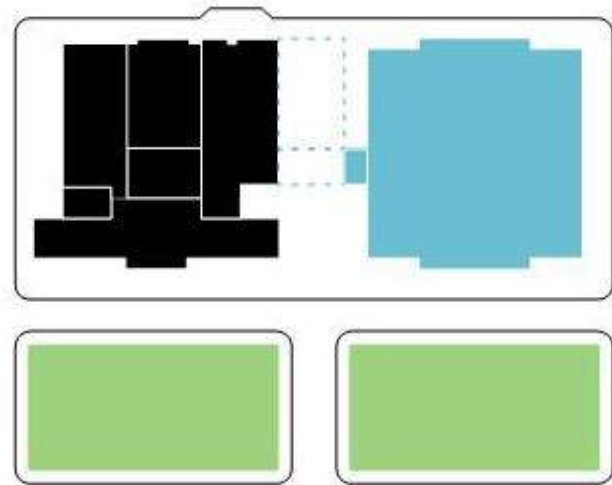

1939

1970

2000

2005

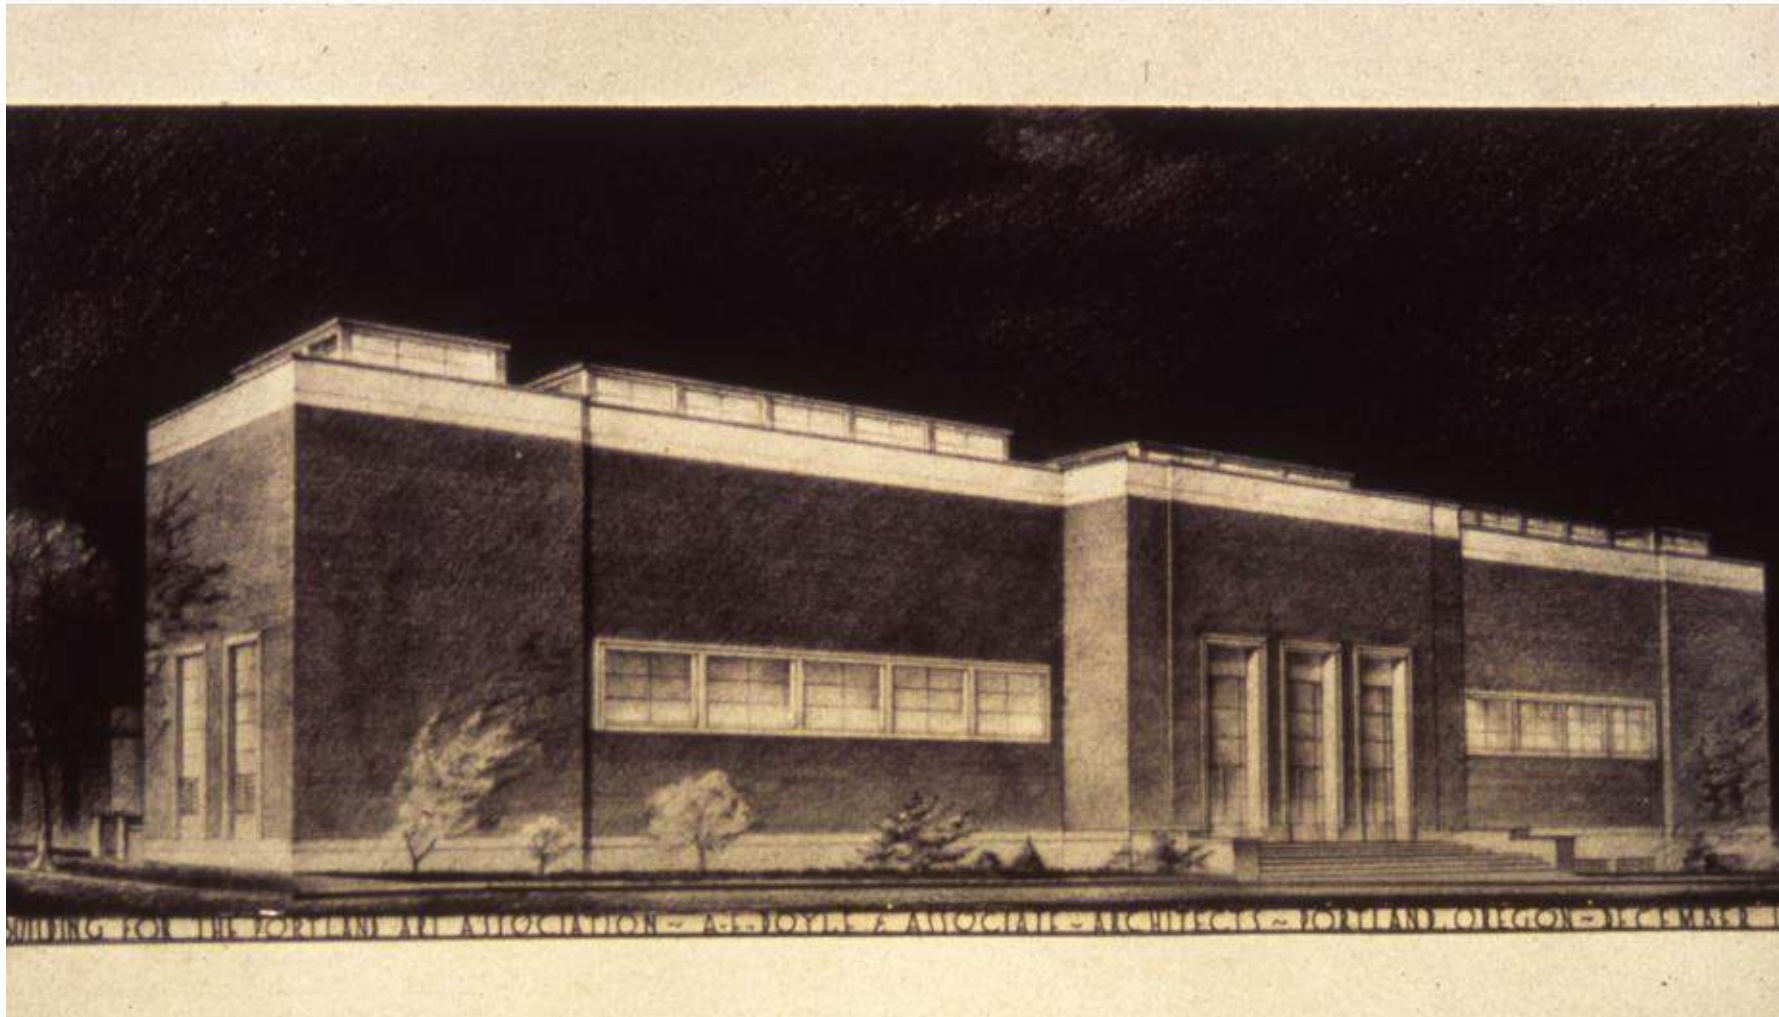

2018

Ladd School building at southwest corner of Park and Jefferson, ca. 1903

Masonic Temple building view at southwest corner of Park and Madison, ca. 1928
Architect: Fred Fritsch

Pietro Belluschi design for Portland Art Museum
(Ayer Wing), 1931

Construction of Ayer Wing, 1932
Facing south from Madison toward Jefferson

Belluschi designed Hirsch Wing addition, completed 1939
(Photo ca. 1968)

Hirsch Wing addition with remnant of Museum School,
at corner of Madison and 10th St, ca. 1940

Madison Street, facing 10th Ave.,
ca. 1967

Construction of sculpture court - Madison Street facing 10th Ave.
ca. 1969

Museum Art School and Sculpture Court, facing Park Ave.
ca. 1974

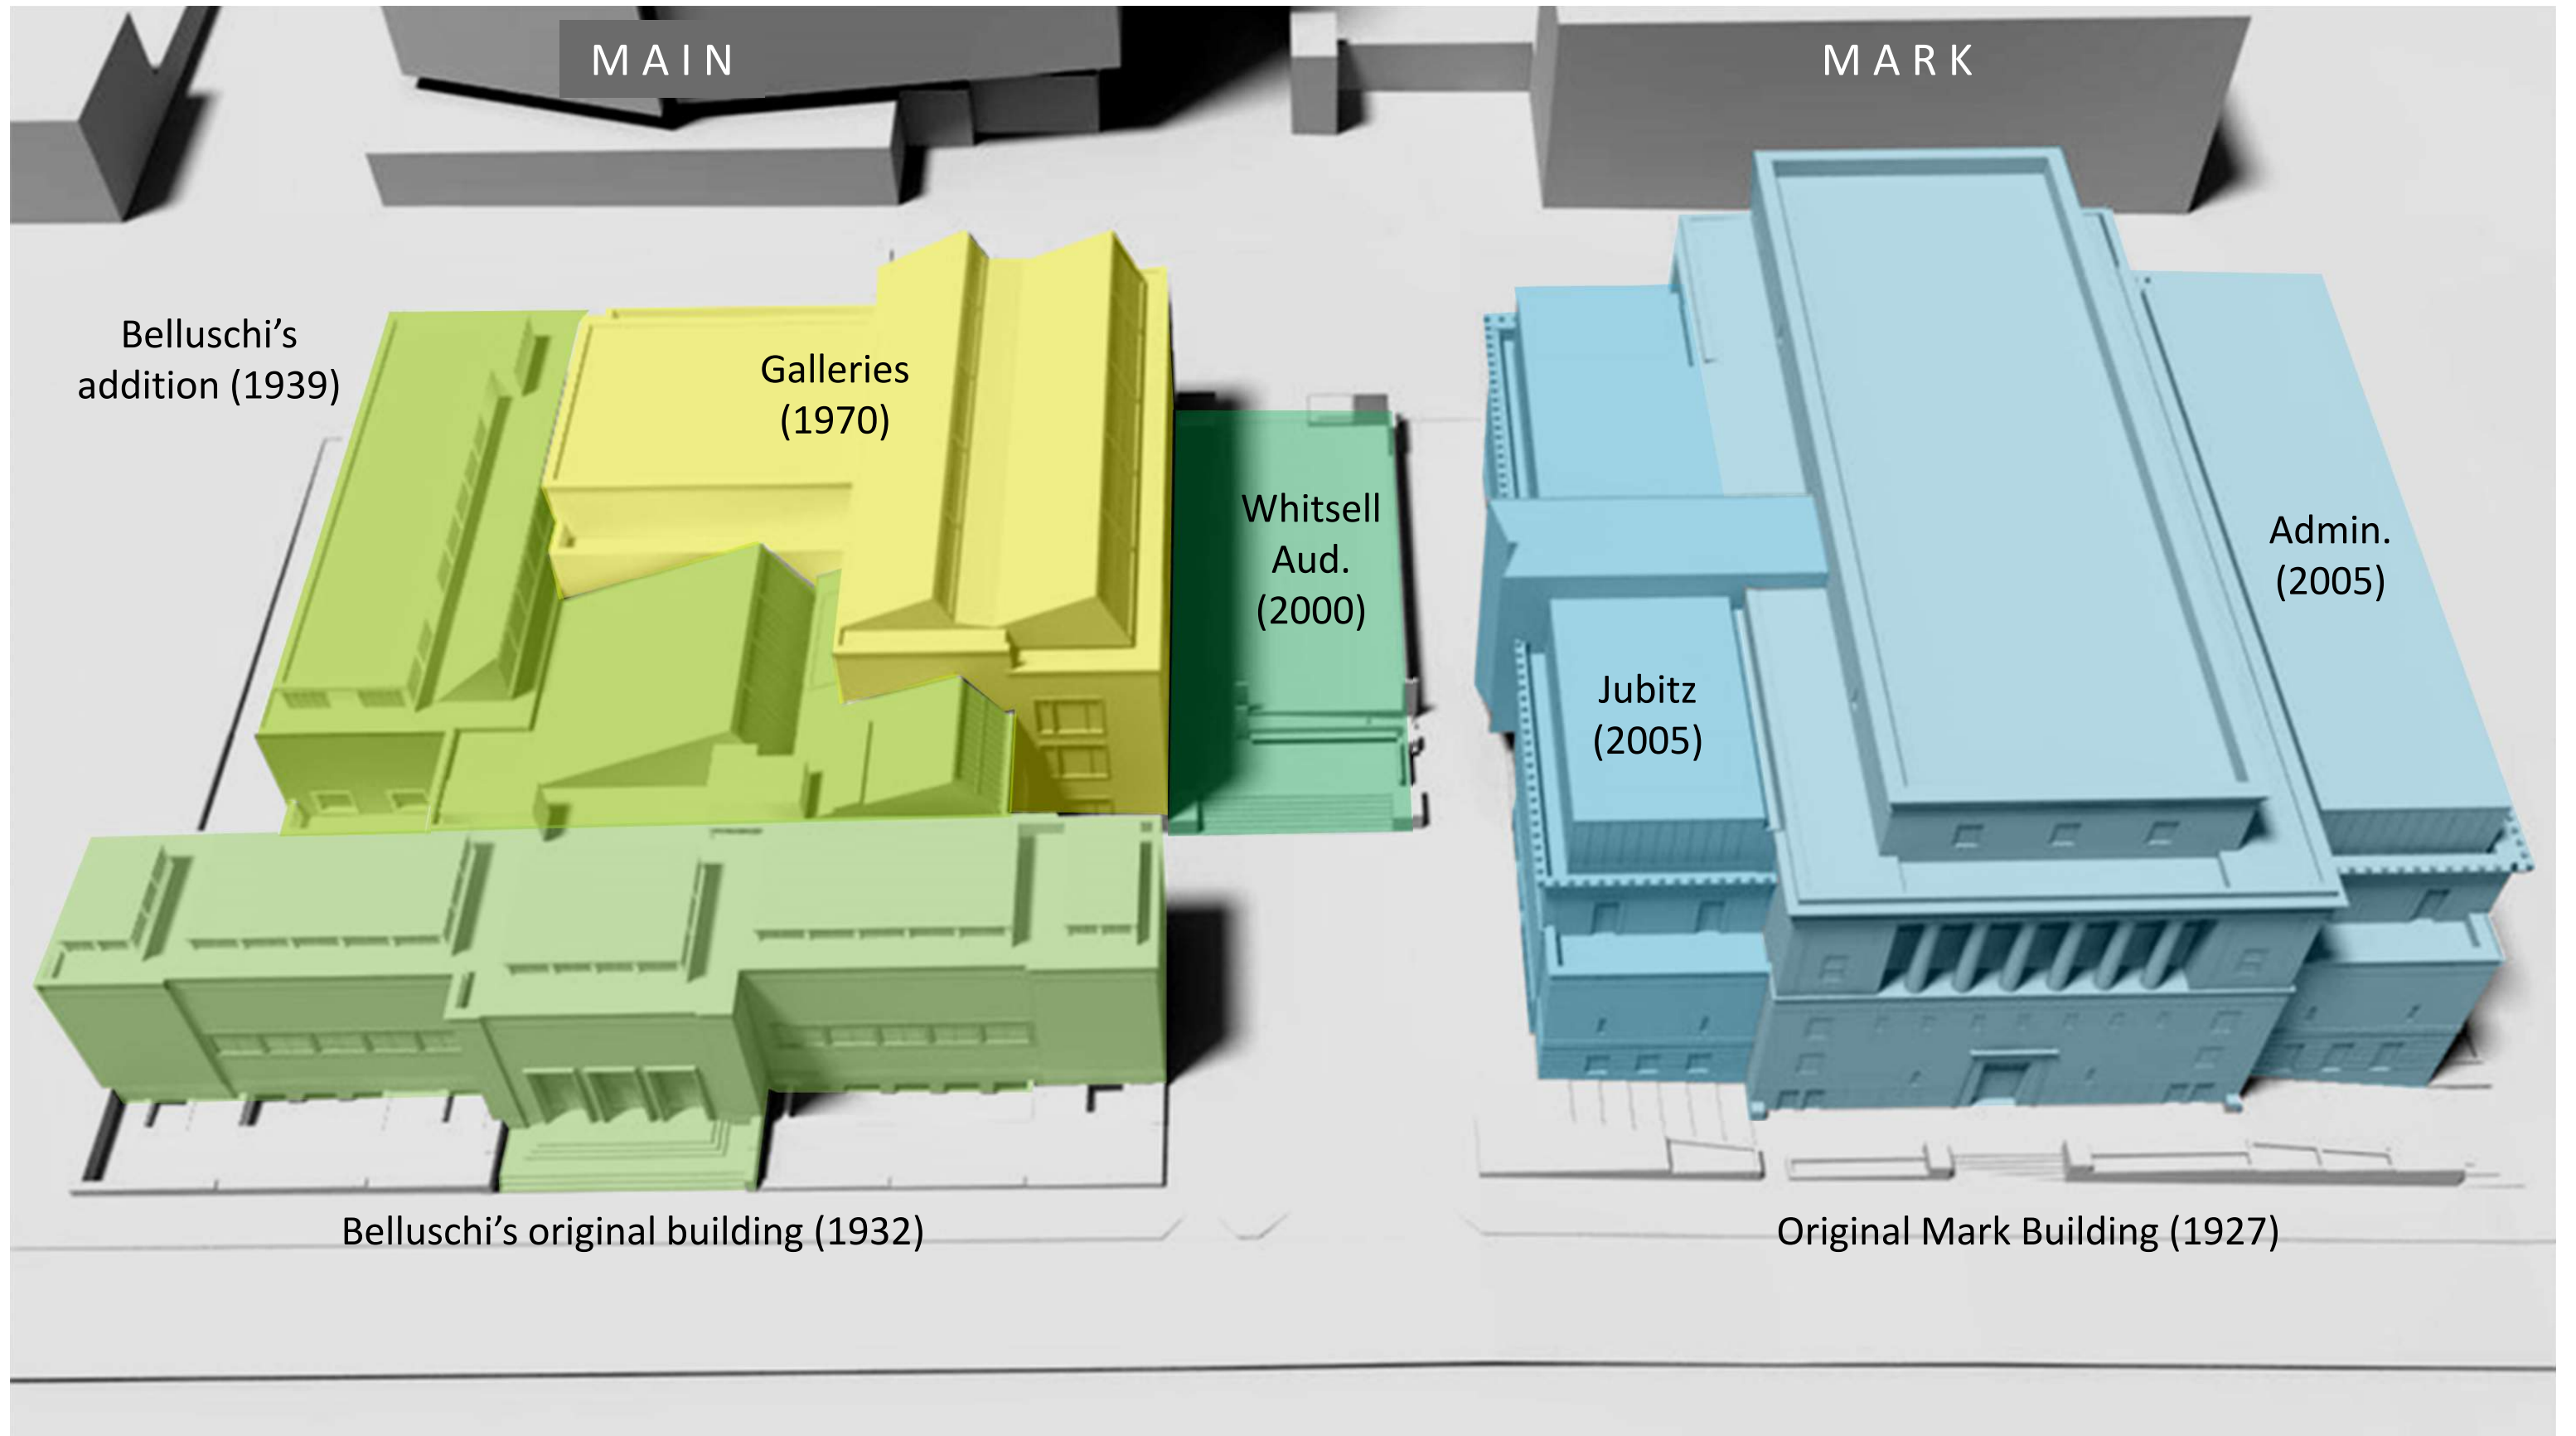

Museum Art School and Sculpture Court, facing 10th Ave.
ca. 1974

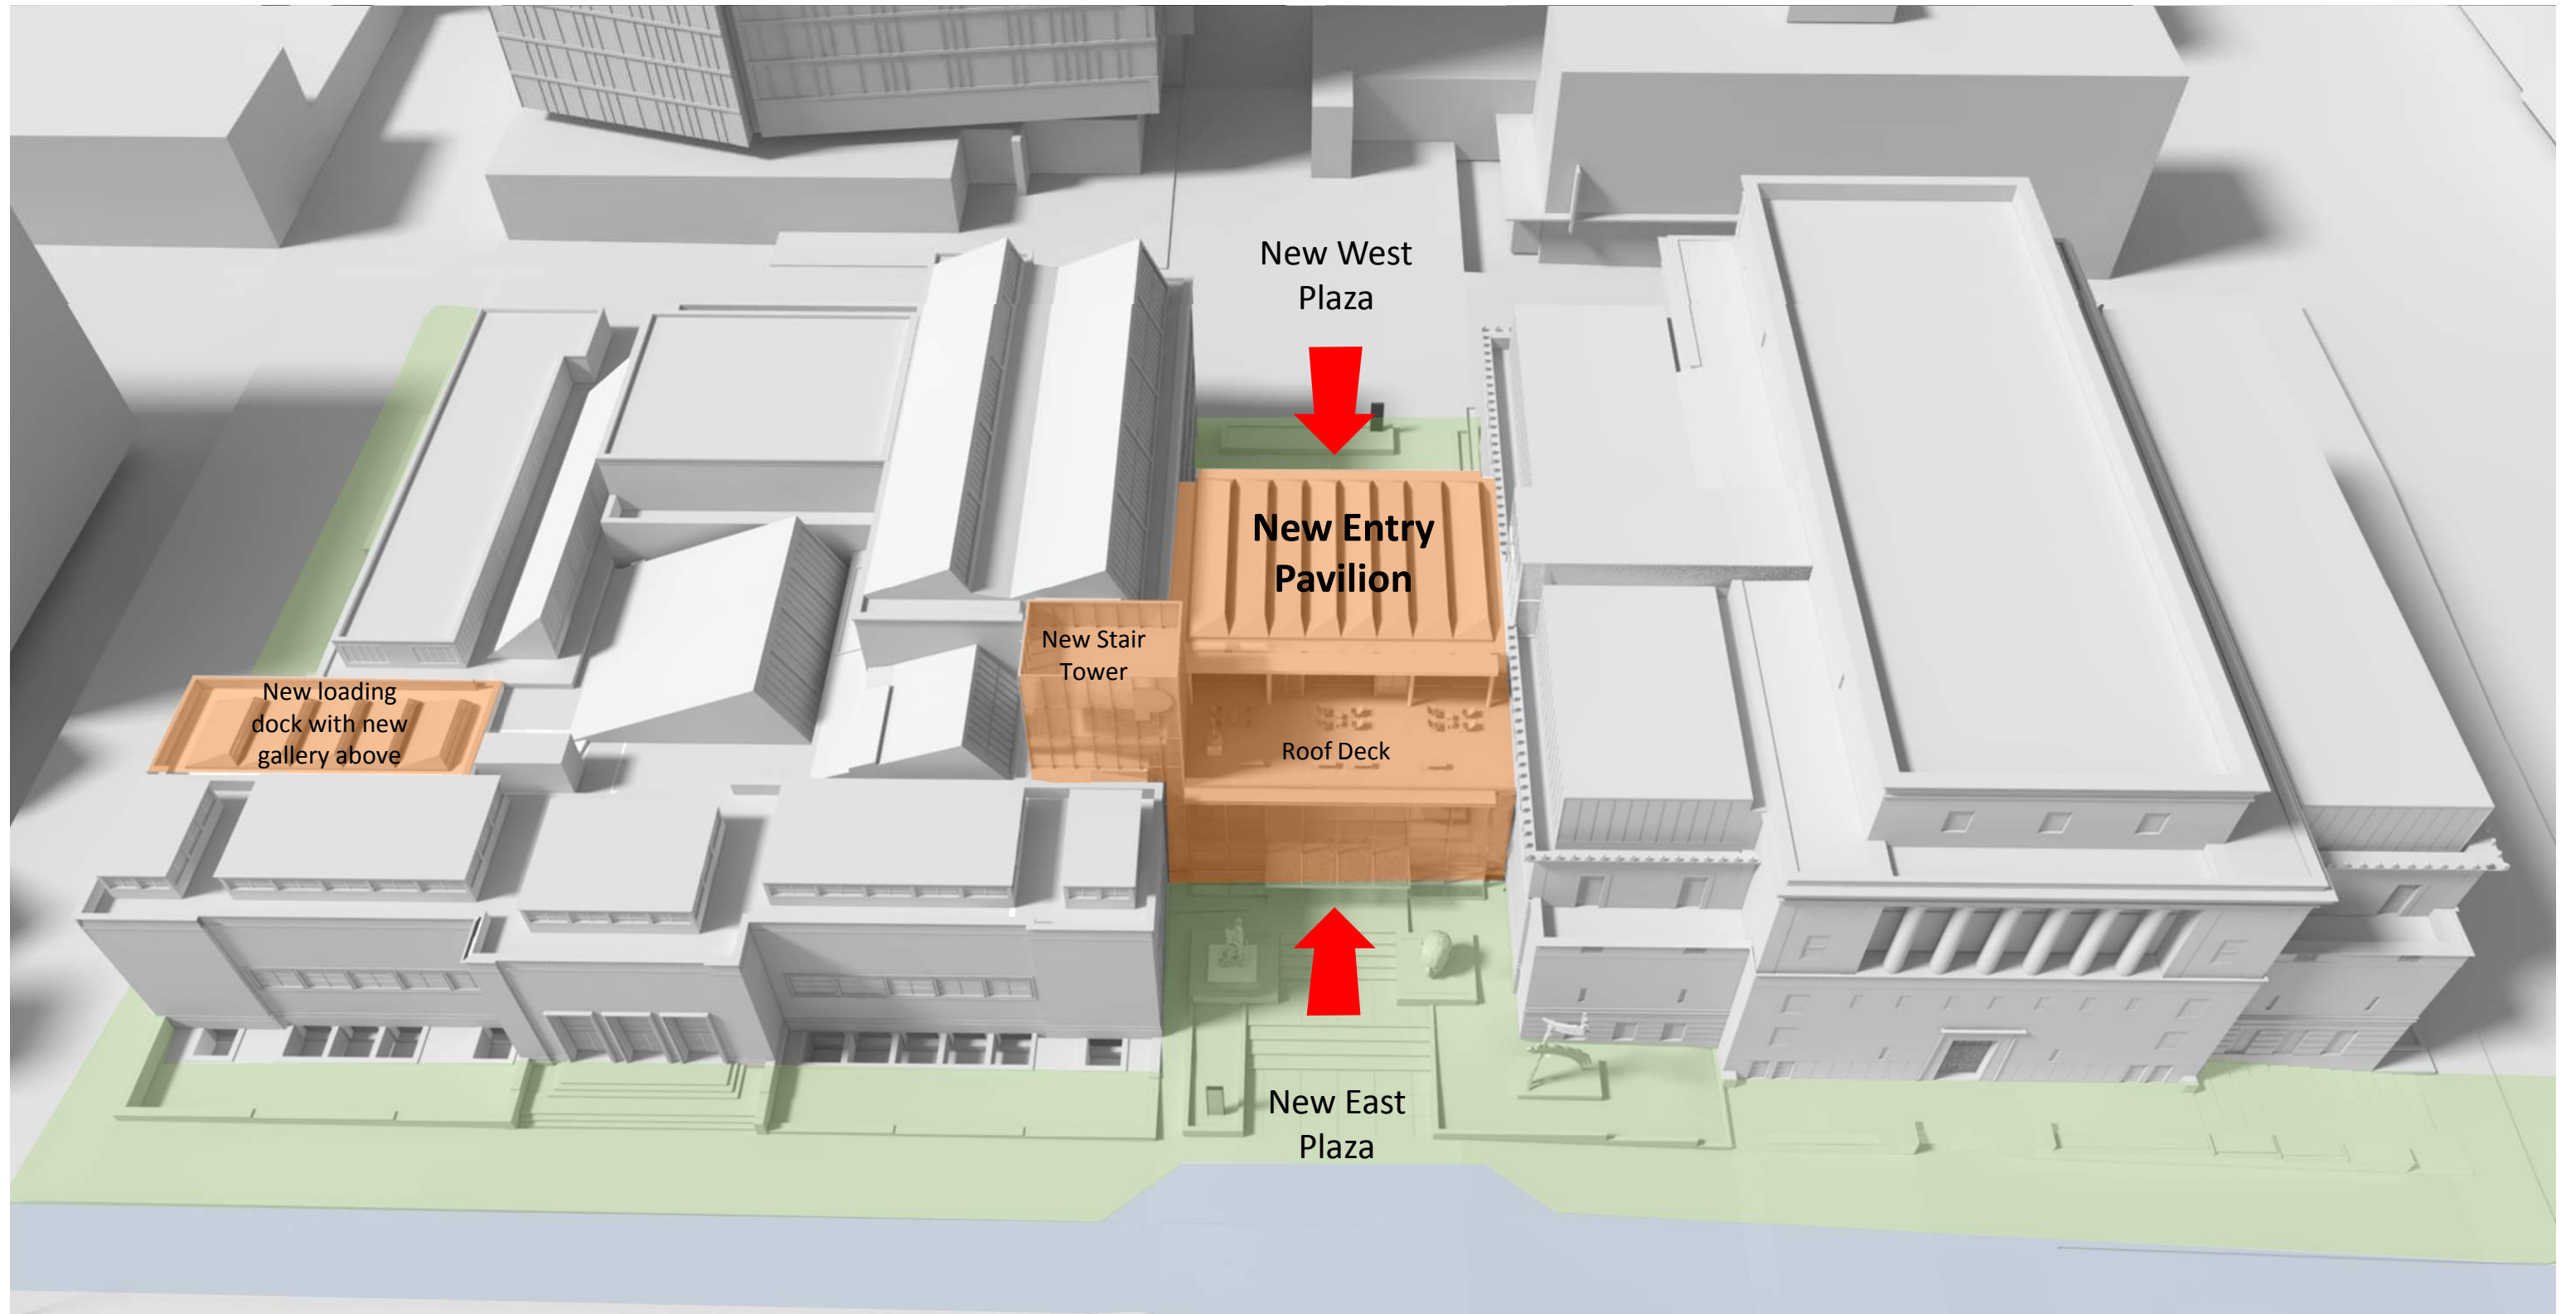

Construction of Whitsell Auditorium, ca. 1999

Construction of Sculpture Court, ca. 2000

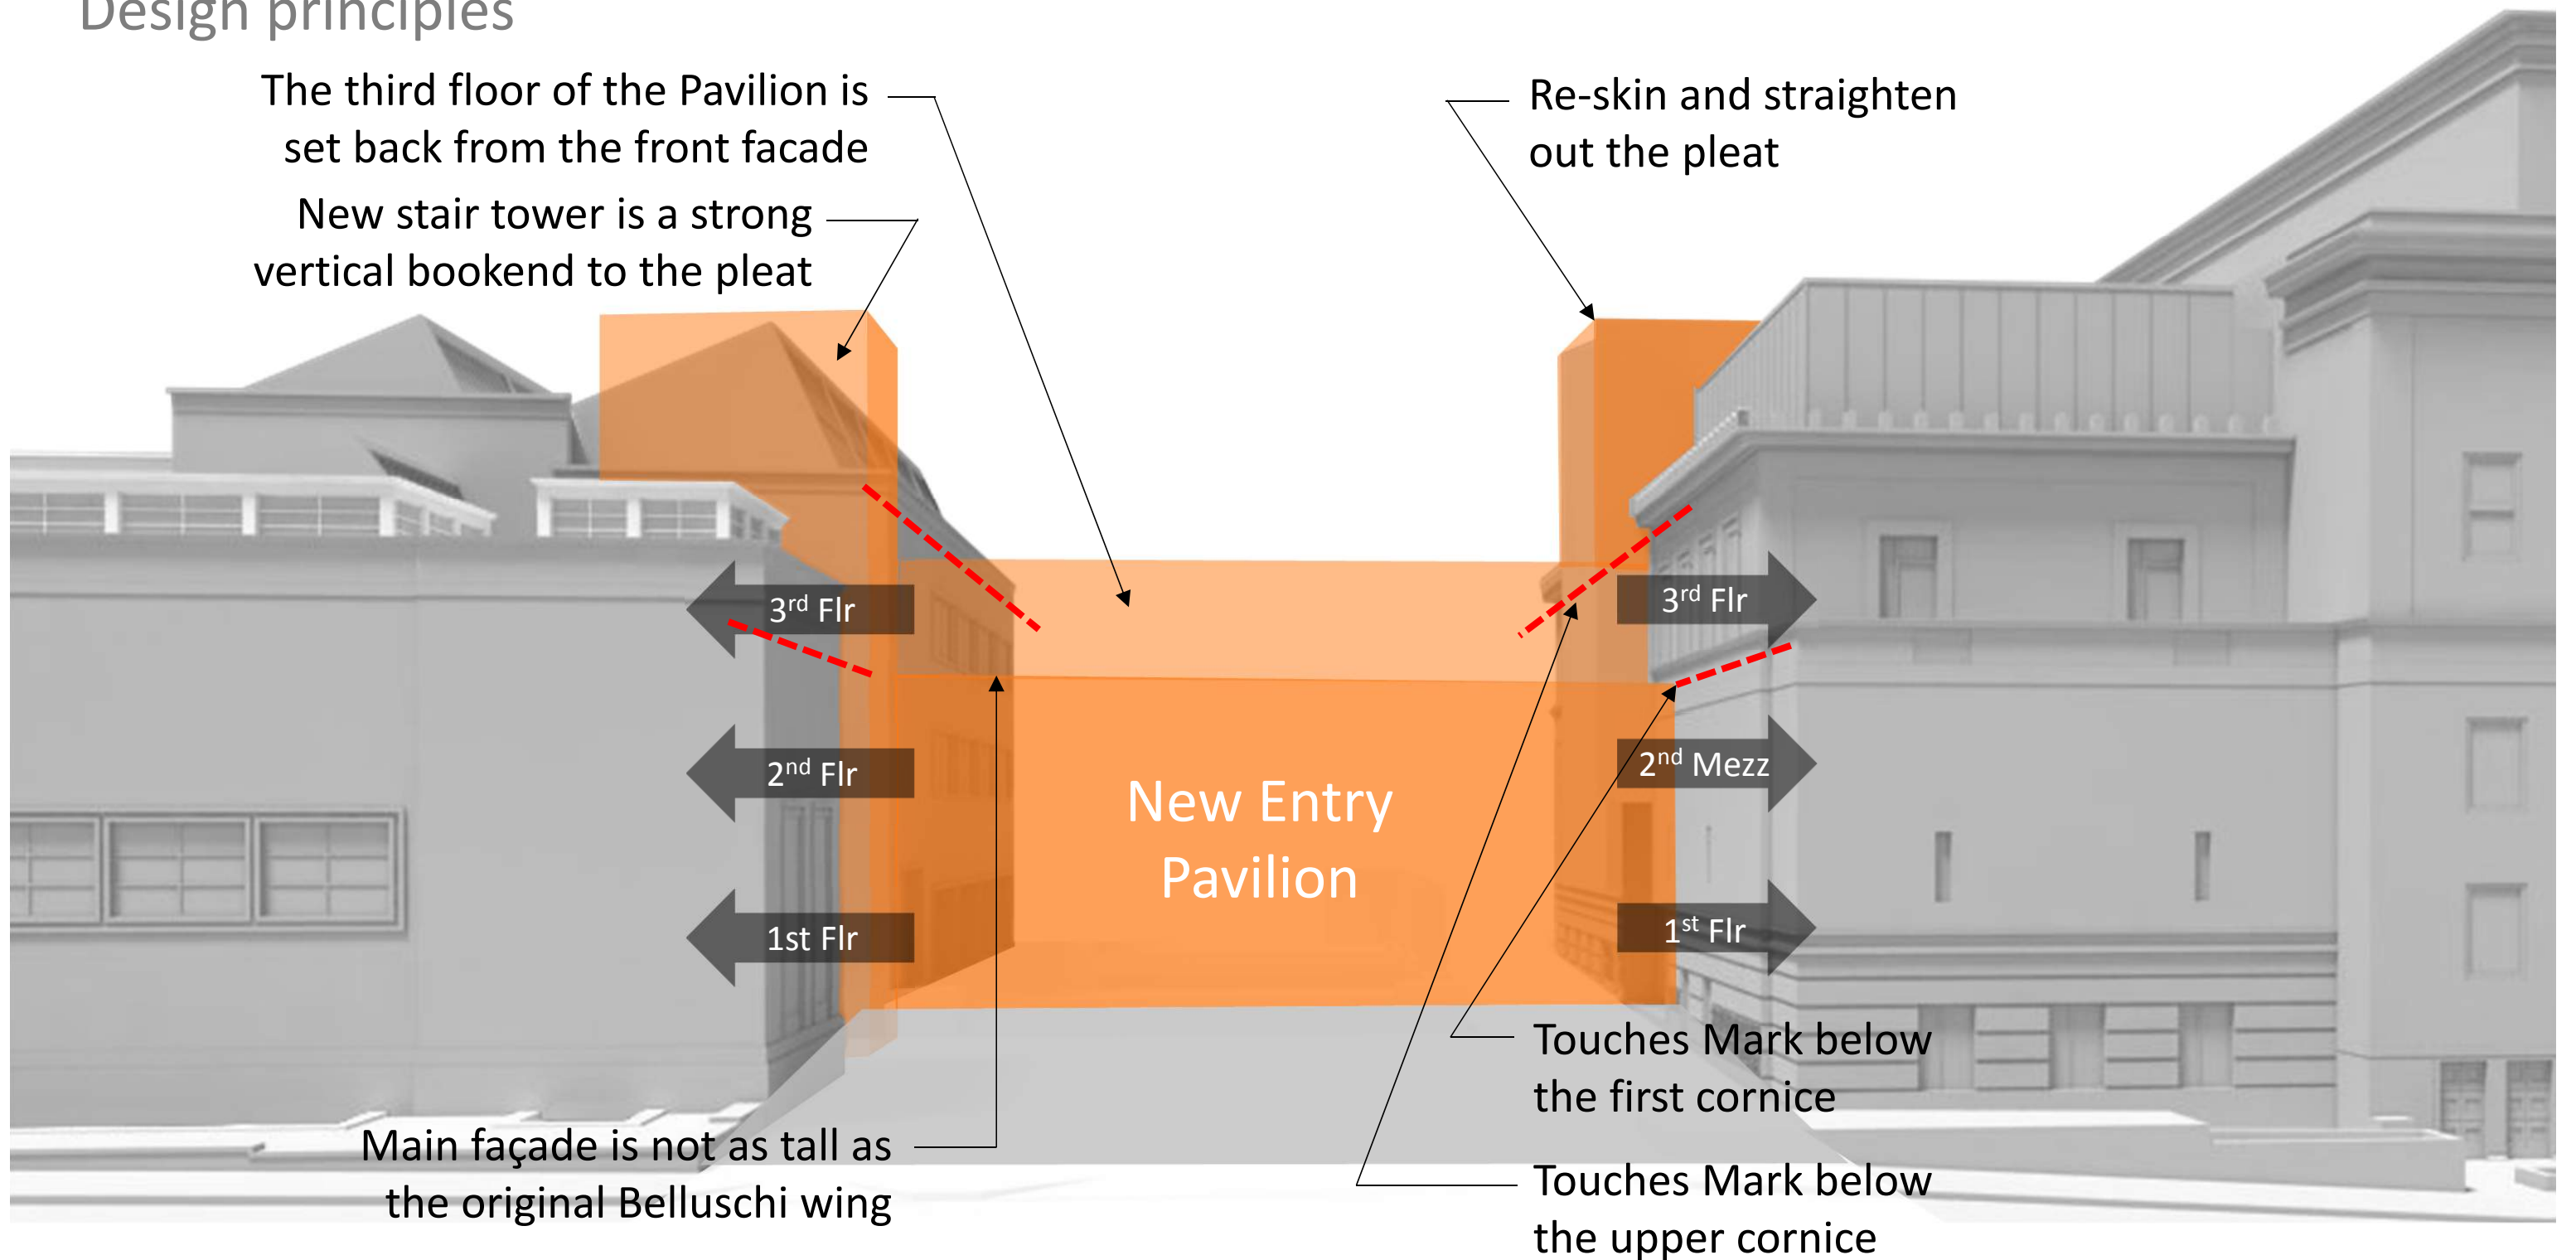

Enhanced accessibility to and throughout Museum campus

Design principles

The third floor of the Pavilion is set back from the front facade

New stair tower is a strong vertical bookend to the pleat

Re-skin and straighten out the pleat

Enhanced accessibility to programs and amenities

Goal: Improved connectivity and accessibility for all audiences to museum and programs across the campus

MAIN

MARK

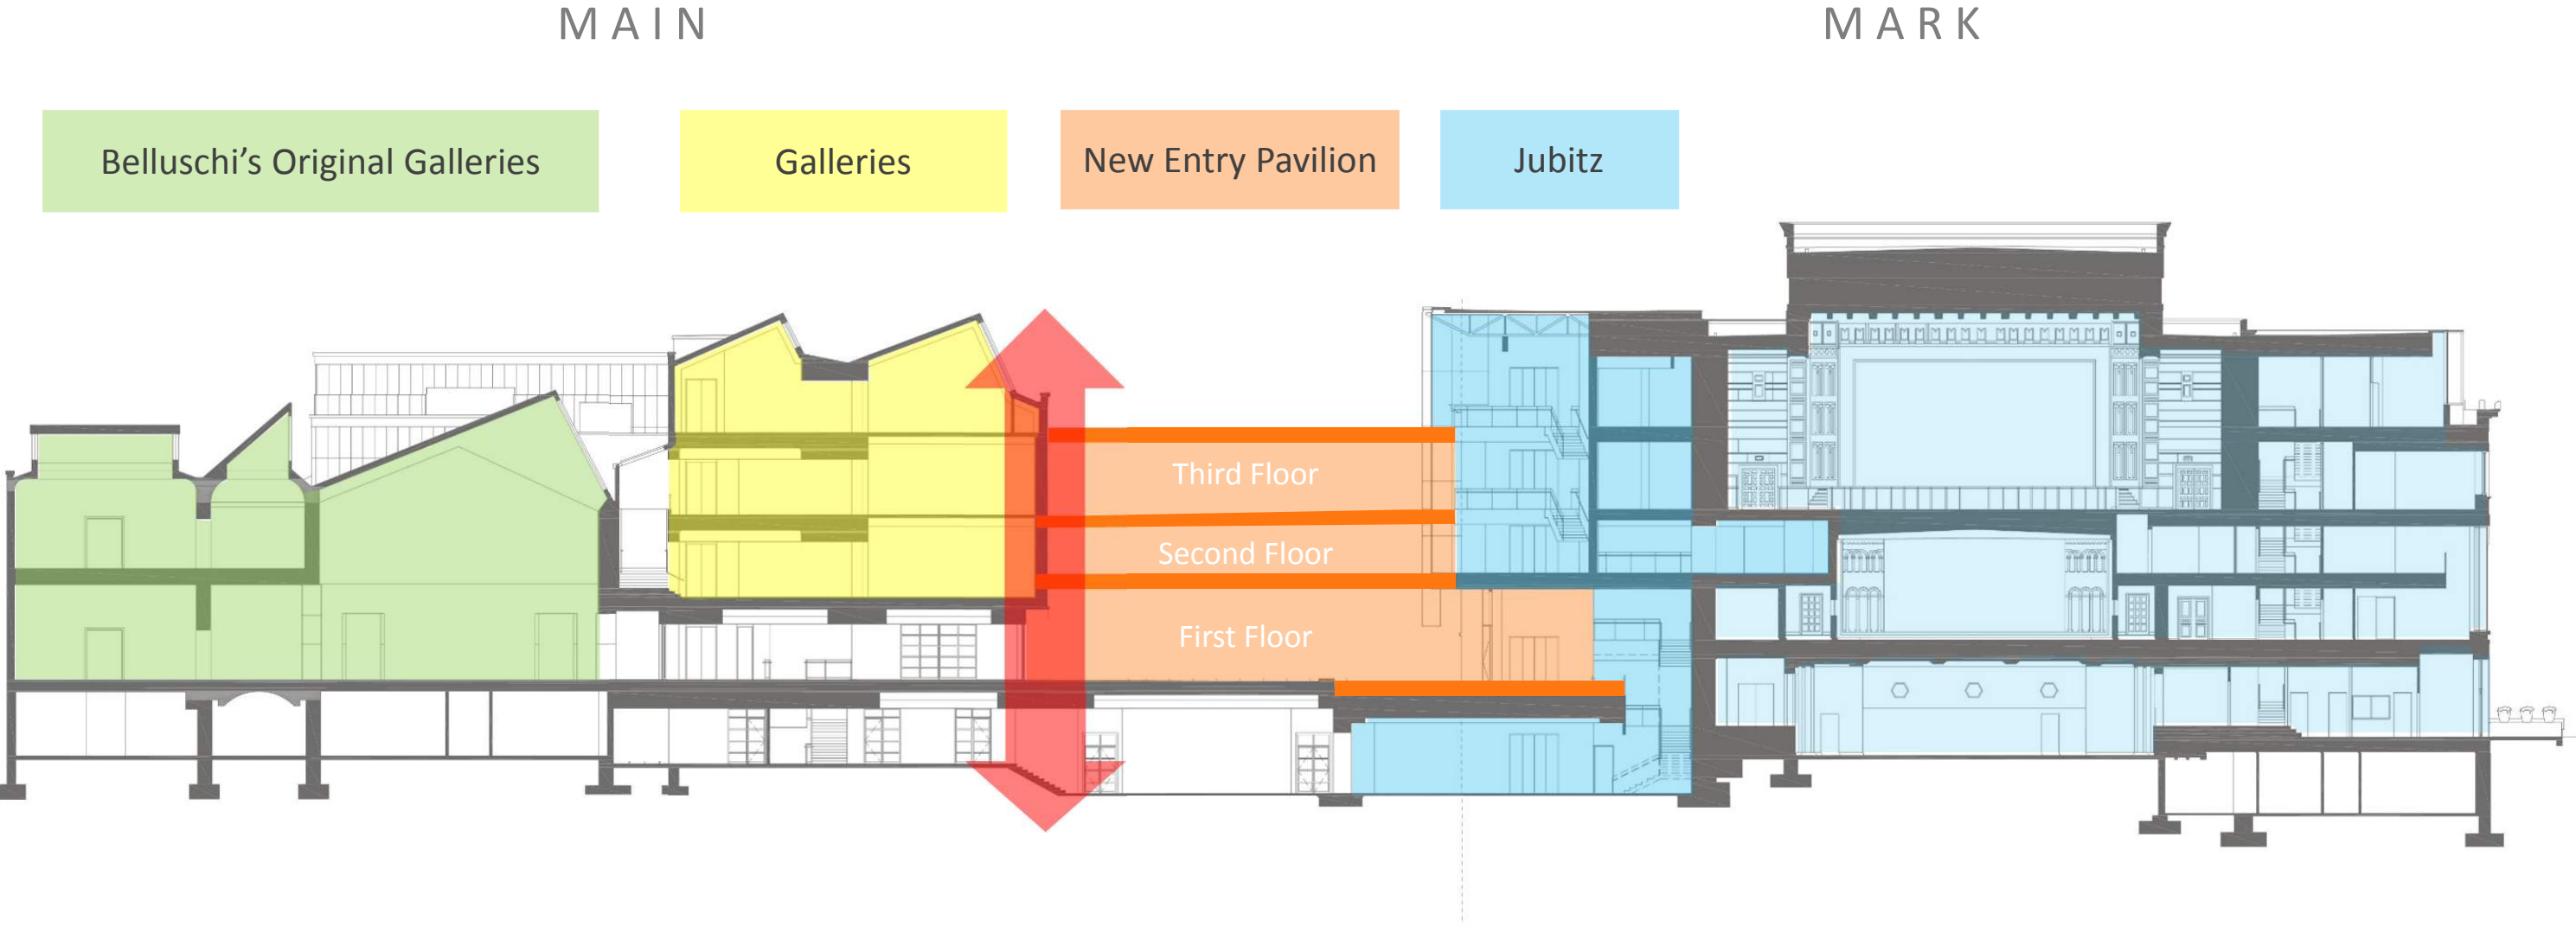

Belluschi's Original Galleries

Galleries

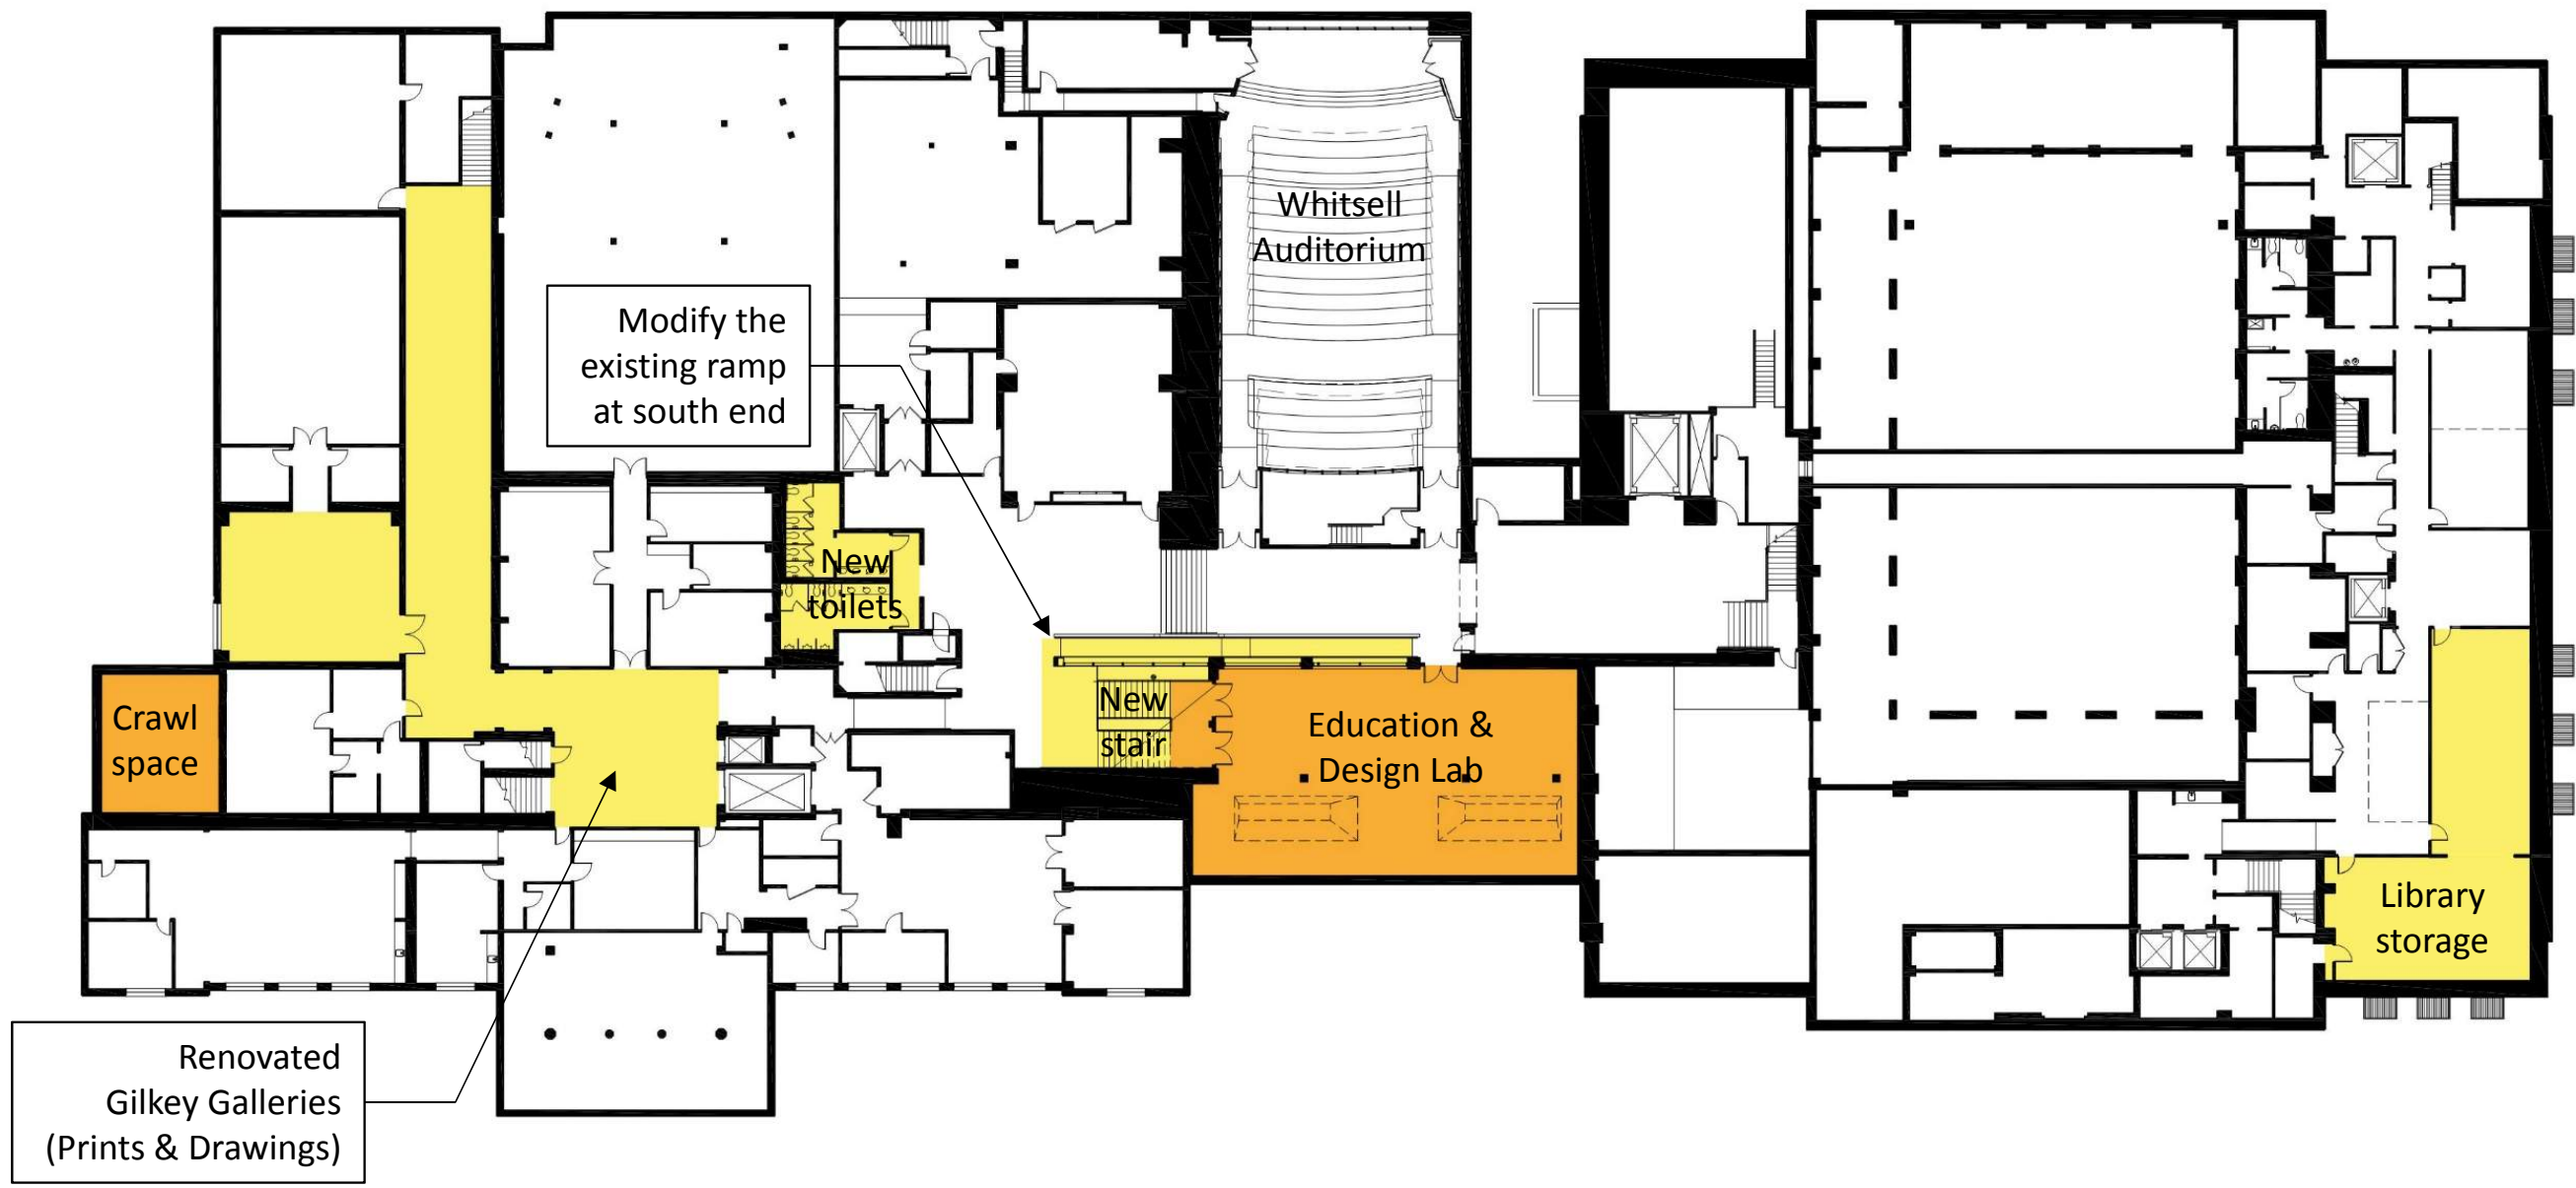

Jubitz

Solution: New Entry Pavilion and connection with new grand staircase

Pavilion connects Main and Mark at 1, 2, and 3

- New Work
- Renovations

SW 10th AVENUE

Renovate café kitchen

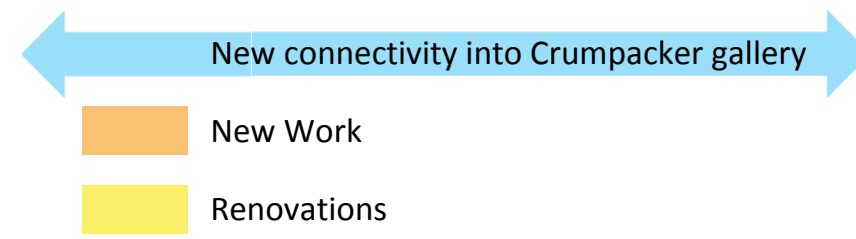

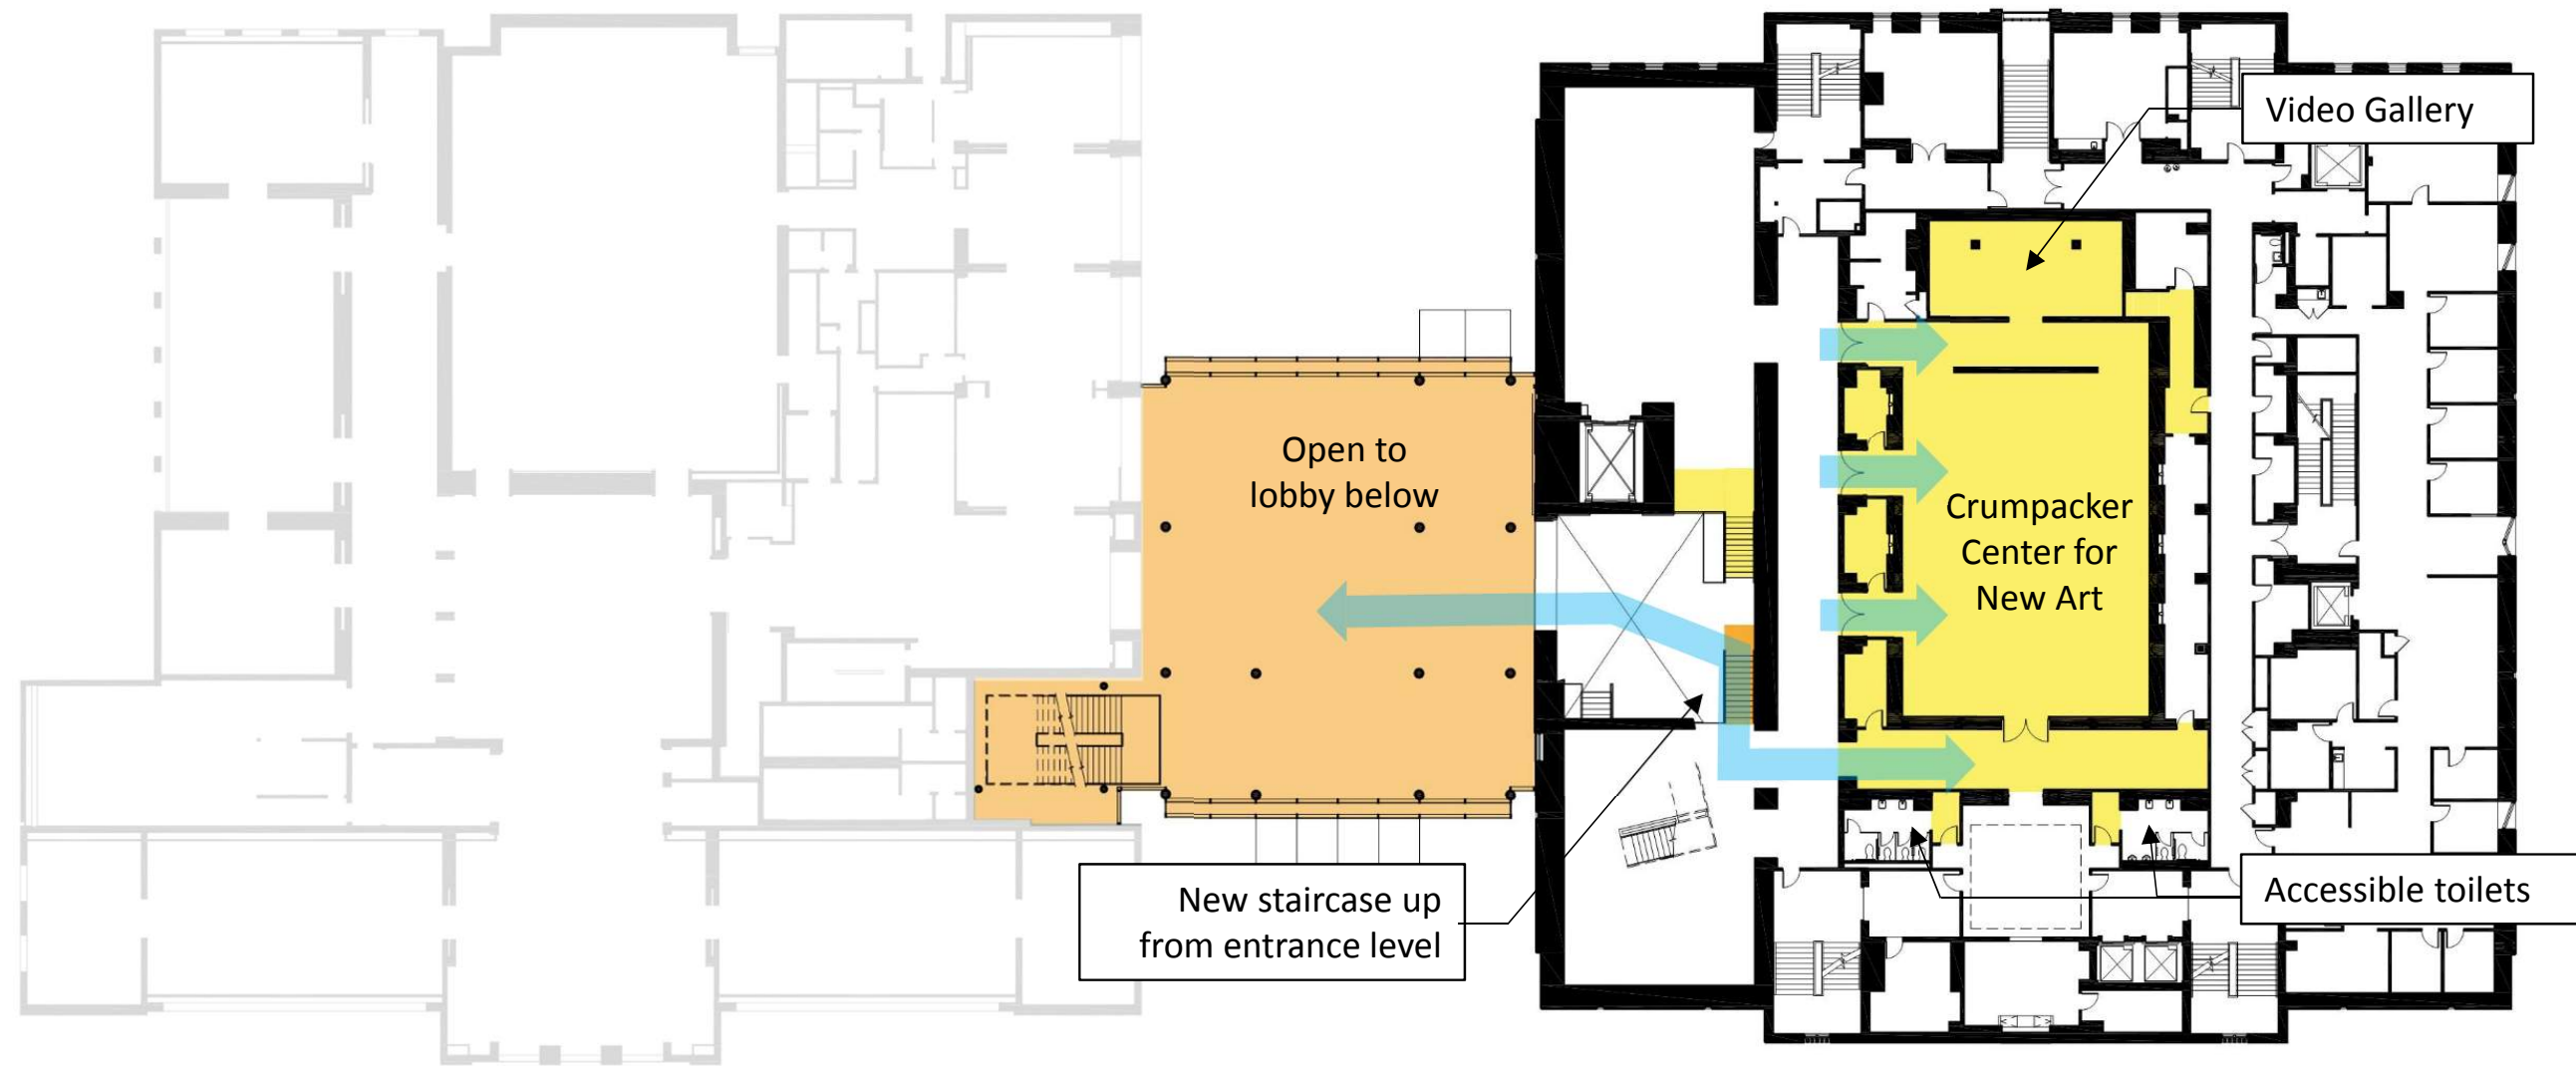

Optional Tent, seats 150

SW JEFFERSON STREET

SW MAIN STREET

SW PARK AVENUE

- New Work
- Renovations
- New Landscape
- New Paving

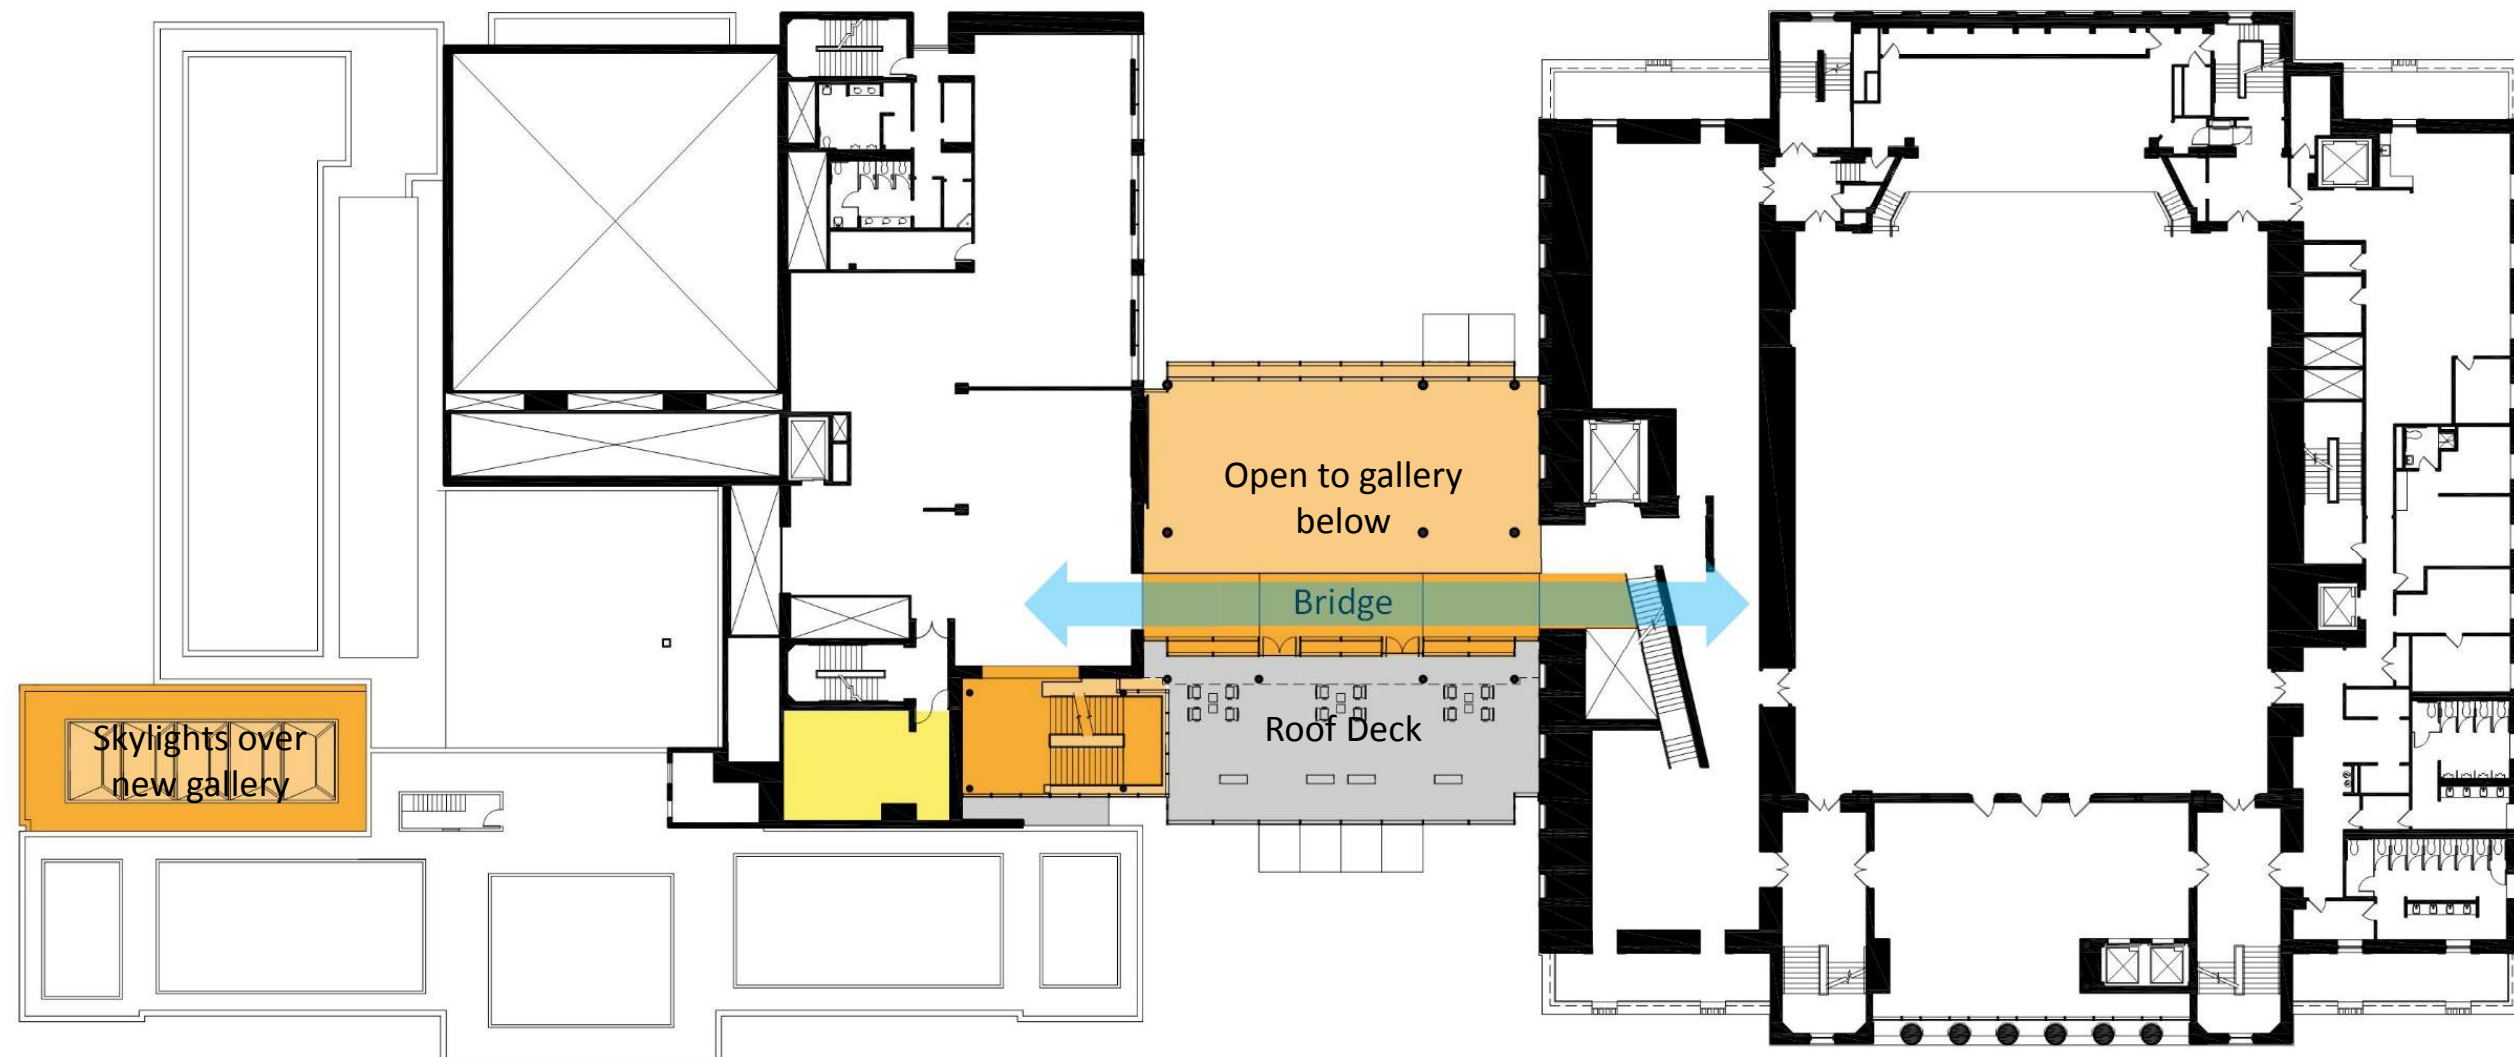

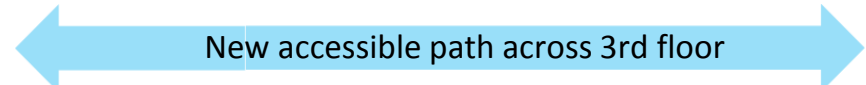

← New accessible path across 2nd floor →

Orange square: New Work

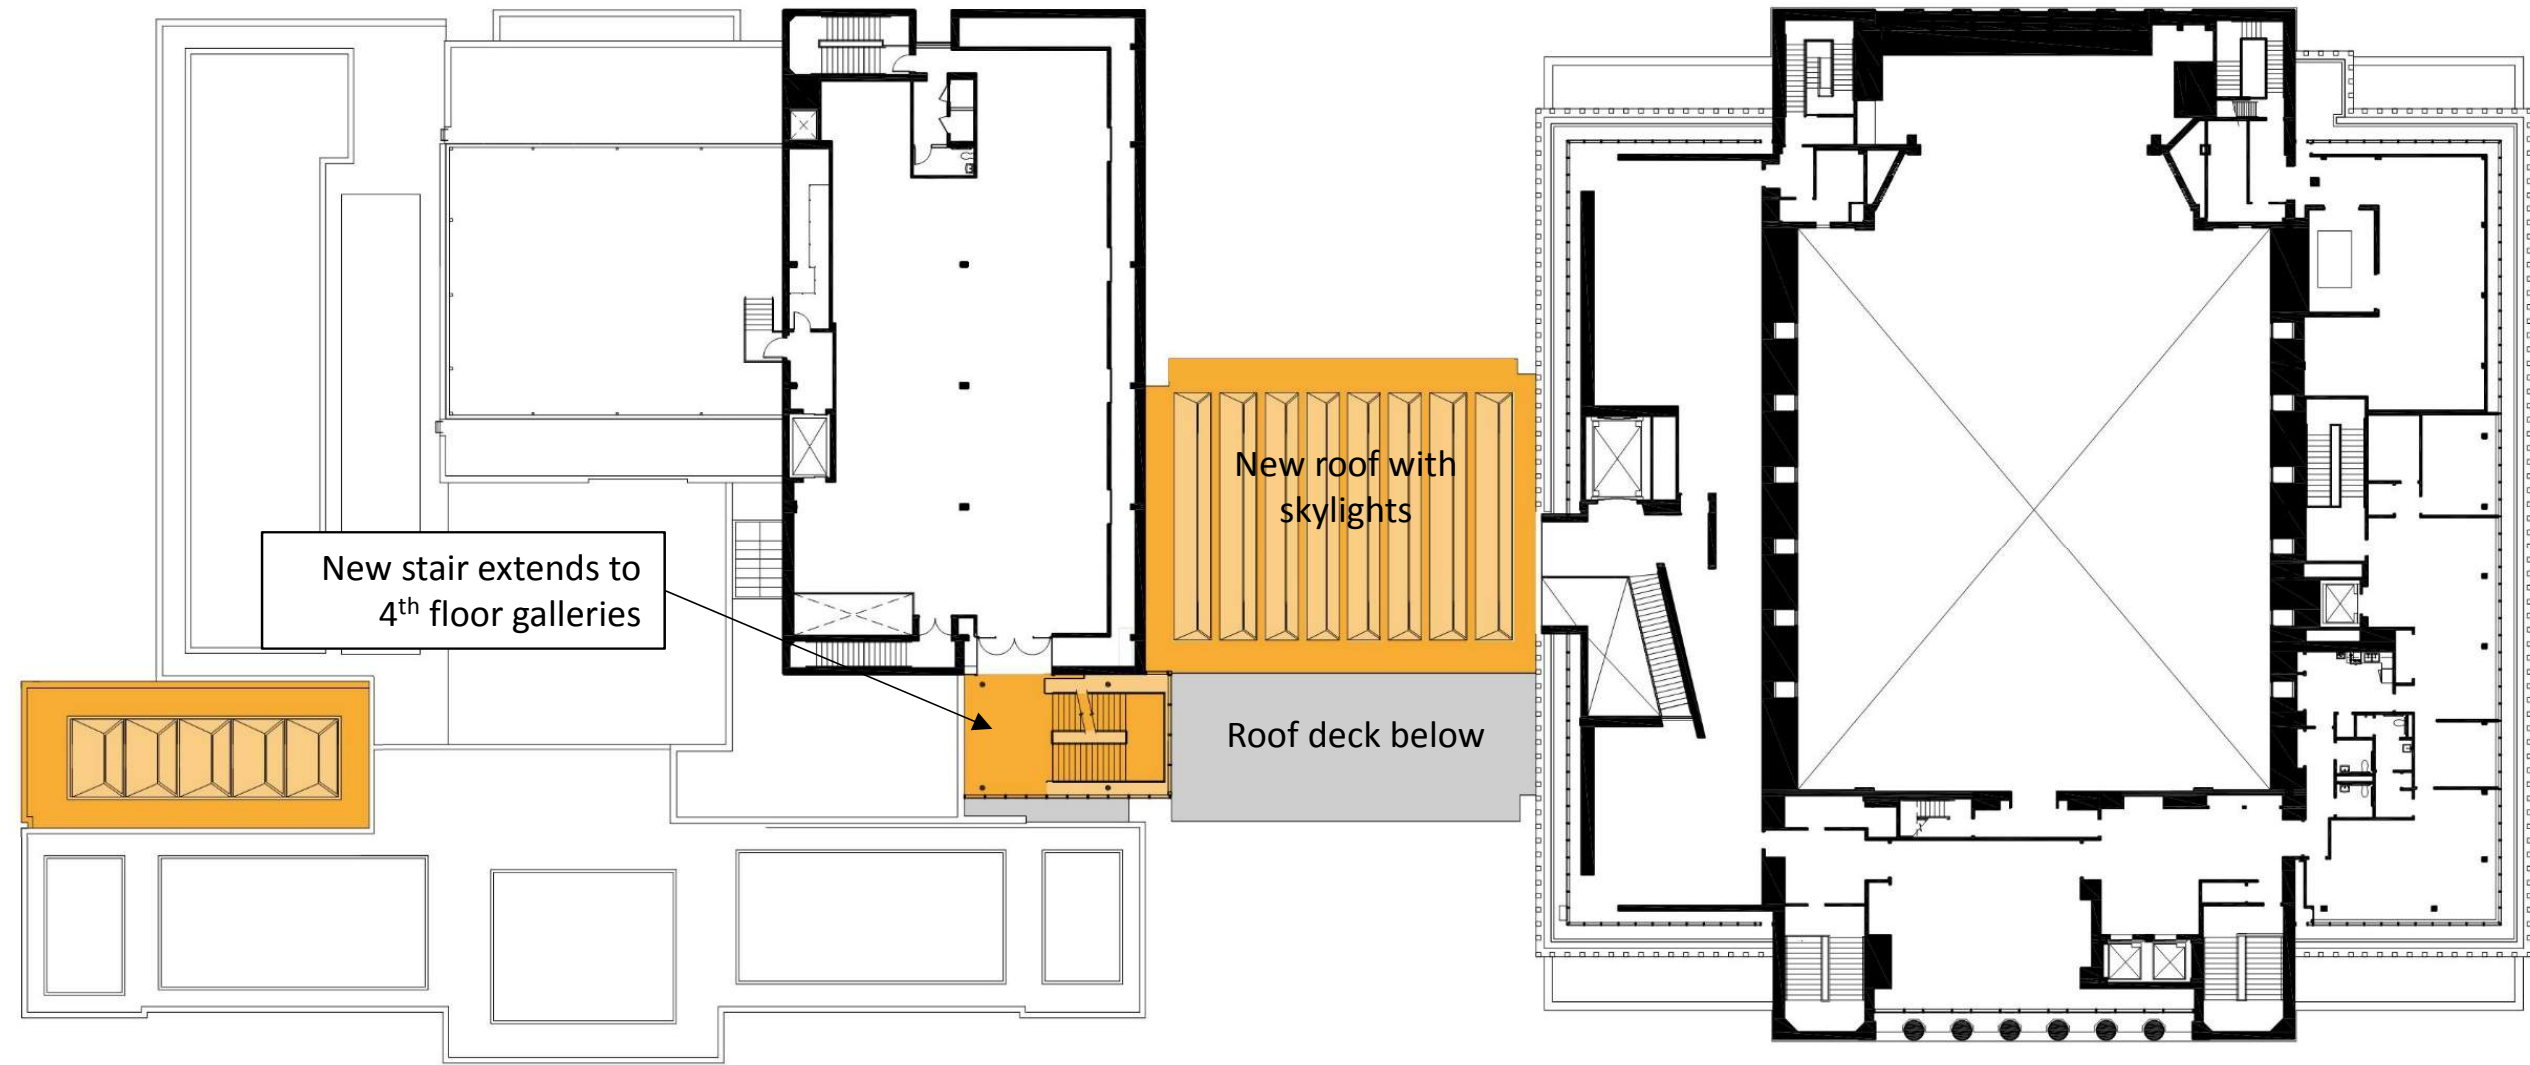

Yellow square: Renovations

 New accessible path across 3rd floor
 New Work  New Roof Deck
 Renovations

New stair extends to 4th floor galleries

New roof with skylights

Roof deck below

New Work

Renovations

