

Bio: Ms. Griffith is a partner in the Portland, Oregon law firm of Tonkon Torp LLP, and is the practice group leader of the Tax Practice Group of the firm. She also serves as the Executive Director of the Oregon Facilities Authority, which is a state body that works closely with the Office of the State Treasurer in assisting nonprofit organizations to access the tax-exempt bond market for financing capital projects. She received her J.D. from Stanford Law School in 1981 and her B.A. (economics) from Rollins College in 1978.

Reason for Interest: "In my 35 years of tax practice, I've served in any number of roles, from teacher to advocate to advisor to policymakers, but never as a member of a review board or similar authority. I would be honored to round out my experience with such a role. I believe my experience would be useful as the so-called 'sharing economy' comes to grips with its members' roles as taxpayers."
