

Office of Mayor Ted Wheeler
City of Portland

July 18, 2018

As Mayor and Commissioner of Finance & Administration, I request Council confirmation of the following appointment and reappointments to the Portland Children's Levy Allocation Committee.

Reappointments	Previous Term	Renewed Term
Dan Saltzman	06/11/2003 – 06/30/2018	07/01/2018 – 12/31/2018
Julie S. Young	01/23/2012 - 06/30/2018	07/01/2018 – 06/30/2020
Appointment	Term
Ted Wheeler	01/01/2019 – 06/30/2020

Dan Saltzman Dan Saltzman served as the architect and major champion for the Portland Children's Levy, which was created in 2002 and overwhelmingly renewed by city voters in 2008 and 2013. Dan is currently serving his fifth term as a city commissioner and is the chair of the Levy's Allocation Committee. His other responsibilities include management of the Bureau of Housing Development, the Portland Housing Bureau, Portland Fire & Rescue and the Gateway Center for Domestic Violence Services.

Dan was born and raised in Portland. He graduated from Beaverton High School, received a B.S. from Cornell University's School of Civil and Environmental Engineering and an M.S. from Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He spent many years in the private sector as the principal in an environmental engineering firm. He also served as a staff assistant to Congressman (now Sen.) Ron Wyden.

Dan served as Multnomah County Commissioner from 1993-1998 and on the Board of Directors for Portland Community College. Dan's focus for Portland's economic and social health is protecting the environment and helping Portland to achieve a more sustainable future, preventing child abuse and domestic violence and making Portland's children a higher priority.

Statement from Dan Saltzman: Levy-supported programs are working everyday throughout Portland: youngsters arrive at kindergarten ready to succeed; after-school programs keep students safe and stimulated in engaging classes; children in foster care receive nurturing and attention from mentors and other caring adults; and more families have access to nutritious and healthy food. We remain firm in our commitment to stand together: united in our belief in equity for all, and knowing that the Portland Children's Levy continues to be a source of hope and opportunity for families.

[INSERT BIO/STATEMENT]

Julie S. Young has many years of civic commitment as a clinical social worker, nonprofit board and committee member and children's activist. She is an ideal fit for this position as she brings a wealth of knowledge and experience from her involvement with organizations such as the Children's Trust Fund of Oregon, the Oregon Community Foundation, Social Venture Partners and City Club. Julie holds a Master of Social Work and is committed to the success of the Levy. Her professional career has been devoted to working with diverse populations and vulnerable families, and she has a keen insight into child welfare, foster care and the juvenile justice systems through her work as a Court Appointed Special Advocate and a community mental health practitioner.

Statement from Julie S. Young: The Children's Levy is, I believe, the smartest long term economic development strategy the City of Portland is making, and as a children's advocate and citizen I am committed to its success. Service on the Allocation Committee would permit me to make a direct contribution.
