involving the Portland Bureau of Environmental Services and the Bureau of Transportation (Ordinance)

Contact name: Jessica Bird 503-823-5256

Presenter name: Jessica Bird

Purpose of proposed legislation and background information:

This Ordinance settles a bodily injury lawsuit brought by Matthew Hamade, resulting from a trip on a sidewalk in southeast Portland.

Financial and budgetary impacts:

This legislation will have no impact on City revenue.

Total cost to the City to settle the lawsuit is $24,500. The source of funding is the City's Insurance and Lawsuits Fund. All cost of the settlement is in the current fiscal year. This Ordinance does not amend the budget.

Community impacts and community involvement:

This Ordinance settles a tort lawsuit resulting from a trip and fall accident involving the Portland Bureau of Environmental Services and the Bureau of Transportation. No public involvement or input was sought regarding this Ordinance. The City Attorney's Office and Risk Management have concluded that it is not appropriate to have public involvement in settlement negotiations regarding tort lawsuits or lawsuits against the City.

No future public involvement is anticipated or necessary. Approval by City Council of this Ordinance will fully settle a tort lawsuit against the City of Portland.

100% Renewable Goal:

This legislation will have no impact on City energy use.
