Presenter name: Amy Rathfelder, Pete Chism-Winfield

Purpose of proposed legislation and background information:

On June 20th, Portland City Council directed the Bureau of Planning and Sustainability to work in collaboration with the Mayor's Office to develop a comprehensive policy strategy to address the issue of single-use plastic waste in the City of Portland. Over the summer and into the fall of 2018, City staff led and coordinated an in-depth policy development and stakeholder process to meet this Council direction. This report details the findings of that stakeholder and engagement process, as well as the final policy recommendations from City of Portland staff.

Financial and budgetary impacts:
