

[Parks]

780 Washington Street,

Portland, Oregon,

March 27, 1906.

To the Hon. Board of Park Commissioners,

Portland, Oregon.

Gentlemen:

We hereby ask permission for the privilege of operating the refreshment stand in the City Park and if allowed that privilege, we agree to repaint present stand and extend platforms 10 feet on three sides of same for the accommodation of the public in serving the ice cream, etc. We will keep the stand open from the 1st of May until the fall rains make it impracticable to continue it. If the weather should permit, we would open the stand before the 1st of May. We will serve ice cream, candies, fruits, peanuts, cigars, etc., reading matter of all kinds, all soft drinks and give light lunches at reasonable prices. We will keep the stand open from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. or later if necessary, and further agree to donate the sum of $150.00 towards maintaining music in the parks of the city of Portland.

Yours very truly,

Mrs Margaret Lewis
