

ENB-18.18 - Reasonable Accommodation

REASONABLE ACCOMODATION

Administrative Rule Adopted by Office of Neighborhood Involvement

ARB-ENB-18.18

Definition:

To furnish additional time or other resources as available to accommodate any person who demonstrates a need as defined by Neighborhood Inspections.

Policy:

Neighborhood Inspections will consider each application for "Reasonable Accommodations" on a case-by-case basis.

Neighborhood Inspections may do one or more of the following if the request for Reasonable Accommodations has been accepted:

1. Allow a specified amount of additional time to correct violations, or
 2. Assist in finding an agency or volunteers to help correct violations, if possible.
-

HISTORY

Previously published as ONI Policy Number E-40-1.

Effective January 16, 2006

Filed for inclusion in PPD March 16, 2006