PARKING, LANE, SIDEWALK AND STREET CLOSURE PERMITS

Administrative Rule Adopted by the Bureau of Transportation Engineering & Development Pursuant to Rule-Making Authority
ARB-TRN-10.03

---

I. Definition

The Office of Transportation issues permits for temporary use of the public right-of-way. Sidewalk closures, parking, lane and street closure permits are issued for a variety of uses as per city code. Some examples of permitted uses include: crane placement or operation, bus loading, mobile medical facilities, funeral vehicles, wedding vehicles, special events, security for visiting dignitaries, facilitating construction on an adjacent property.

II. Administrative Rule

A complete application is required for permit processing. Application may be made for temporary rights-of-way permits by calling the Transportation counter 503.823.7365 or by applying in person at the Transportation counter located on the first floor of 1900 SW 4th Avenue. Please call 503.823.7365 for hours of operation.
