

Sabra Purifoy Biography

Sabra has significant experience in community outreach and civic engagement. She has worked on many consumer protection initiatives and created programs that promote socio-economic inclusion. She is passionate about social equity and justice and is excited to bring her experience to the Open and Accountable Elections Commission.

Sabra currently works as a Policy Analyst for the Oregon Department of Consumer and Business Services. Prior to moving to Oregon, Sabra served as Acting Deputy Director for the Los Angeles County Department of Consumer and Business Affairs where she oversaw the implementation of economic development policies and managed the County's Office of Small Business and the Center for Financial Empowerment. She has eight years of experience as a trial attorney in the private sector, having represented a range of clients in all aspects of civil litigation in California state and federal courts.

Sabra has Bachelors degrees in Political Science and Women's Studies from the University of South Florida. She received her Juris Doctor from Cornell University. In her free time, Sabra can be found exploring Oregon's natural beauty and enjoying the vibrant restaurant scene. She lives in Portland with her partner.
