Purpose of proposed legislation and background information:

By this ordinance Council is adopting a revised legal description and map for a single dwelling residential property located at 445 W/NW Hilltop Drive that was annexed to the city last December. The change is one of form only and does not change the actual boundaries of the adopted annexation. This format change from a "lot and block description" to a "metes and bounds" description is in response to instructions from the State of Oregon Department of Revenue.
