

Whereas

Whereas, The City's Charitable Campaign was established in 1989 by Commissioner Mike Lindberg; and

Whereas, The City's Charitable Campaign provides an easy way for City employees to support charities that matter to them through payroll deductions; and

Whereas, Twelve City-Partnered Nonprofits and 10 Umbrella Organizations representing 450 charities will participate in this year's campaign; and

Whereas, These groups help make positive changes in areas such as the environment, housing, social justice, arts and culture, health care, and human rights; and

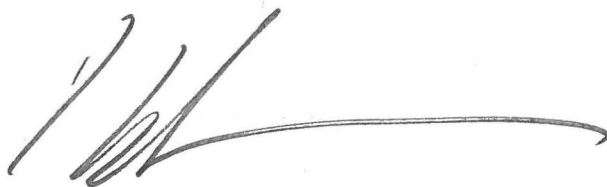

Whereas, City employees donated more than a quarter of a million dollars last year, and more than $3.3 million dollars over the last 12 years; and

Whereas, The commitment to charitable giving is demonstrated by City employees year after year; and

Whereas, The Citywide Charitable Campaign opens today, Wednesday, October 30; and

Whereas, Margaret Mead once said, "Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed people can change the world - indeed, it's the only thing that ever has,";

Now, therefore, I, Ted Wheeler, Mayor of the City of Portland, Oregon, the "City of Roses," do hereby declare the Citywide Charitable Campaign open until November 30th, 2019, and encourage City employees to participate and help change the world.
