

Karim's Bio

Karim Hassanein is a multidisciplinary designer and artist who has served on the board of Open Signal since 2018. He spent his formative years outside the US, living in Egypt before moving to Oregon in 2007 to study Landscape Architecture. Since then, he has worked as a landscape designer, architectural marketing professional, and freelance creative consultant.

Karim is passionate about amplifying civic engagement, particularly in the urban environment. He loves cities and believes in the power of community media to positively impact Portland's social, political, and physical landscape. Karim is motivated to serve the Open Signal community, supporting citizenship as a visible, vocal, active process.
