

Police Headquarters

A. M. COX,
Chief of Police

Portland, Oregon, July 9, 1910.

Hon. Joseph Simon,
Mayor of the City of Portland.

Dear Sir:-

Replying to your communication of the 7th inst., relative to the complaint of Andrew Kan against the action of one of the officers in arresting one Dr. One You Sun beg to state that I have thoroughly investigated this matter and am attaching hereto a report of officer William Stein who made the arrest and also a report of Sergeant John A. Goltz, who was in charge of the station at the time.

Officer Stein is not a regular in the department but is serving as a special officer during the present strike troubles and on account of his inexperience may not have used the best of judgement. He admits taking the Doctor by the arm in bringing him to the station because he tried to get away from him when he placed him under arrest and states that he did not understand him in regard to his wanting to get his hat and coat. The officer was in plain clothes so consequently they would not be noticed by pedestrians on their way to the station. It is customary to seat prisoners behind the desk in the Captains office while waiting for their bail money.

The officer was evidently justified in arresting the Doctor as he was found guilty of violating the Ordinance as well as numerous others who were arrested on the same charge.

Yours very truly,

A. M. Cox

Chief of Police.
