

Public market

The following persons defied the Market Master to put them off the market.

J M LaFollette, Salem, sold peaches above maximum
S.C. Braswell, Gresham, Sold ~~xx~~ berries " "
Mrs. Lois Shanks, Stall No. 333,
Mrs. Riley, Stall No. 331 and others,

J. Lung, Chinaman, Arrested for selling radishes for 5¢ when maximum was 4¢.

Record at Police Court shows the following:

~~AM~~ J. Lung, Chinaman, Complainant Eastman, Market Master;
offense, selling radishes; bail, $50. case dismissed, August 28,
1919. Fred Hoffman and others went to Eastman and the Chinaman was restored; put back on the Market, and his bail restored. He was on the Market the day Mr. Bigelow made his emphatic denial.
Tourney, Eastman's cousin or friend,

Advertised stall for rent. Some say he offered business for rent.

Mrs. Lois Shanks,
Mrs. Eaton,
S. C. Braswell and others.

All say that Bill McCowan bought the stall. McCowan acknowledged to us that he paid over $150.00 for the "Basement space," but did not say how much he paid. He sold it again to Ritz and wife who were put off the market by Government ~~in~~ Agent.

The following persons say that Eastman sells on the Market.

S.C. Braswell, Lois Shanks, Wright, the Assistant and others.

All say that Mrs. Willius now sells for him. Carpenter, the meat cutter has sold for him, many persons reported.

THOSE SELLING FROM TWO STALLS

F.E. Taylor and Wife.
Ritz and wife,
Hautenhoff and wife,

This reported by a number of reliable persons.

Carpenter, - Meat Cutter.

Many persons reported that Carpenter sold a lot of meat on the market. Some of them complained that he did not give all the meat back. / All claimed that Carpenter had no stock of his own.
when he cut for them.

Mrs. Lois Shanks says positively that he sold as high as 20 hogs in one year, or more, ^{besides veal and other meat} That she sold for him. Sold 2 hogs and one ~~h~~ on one Saturday besides selling for other persons.

Eastman's Conquest.

A number of persons told us about Mr. Eastman's conduct with one Ruby Alexander. Mrs. Shanks says that before she knew the woman, Eastman wanted her to board her at her home, but she refused.

Mr. Wright, the Assistant Market Master first told us about This woman. Then Mrs Eaton, Mrs. Shanks and others went into the matter and told the whole story. It is generally known on the market.

Buying and Selling

It was reported to us that most persons selling on the market were selling for others. Had nothing of their own. And most of them were selling on commission.

Tourney, Eastman's cousin, sold cold storage eggs on the market without marking them. Canded them in room on east side of 4th street, near Taylor, in back room of cleaning establishment.

This reported by,

Mrs. Lois Shank, Mrs Eaton, Fred Hoffman, Wm. McCowan 561 East 46th St North and others. Few of the Italians but what are buying; Nobody knows what the Japs and Chinese are doing. It was reported that one Jap paid for all the stalls and parceled them out as he saw fit. This matter not fully corroborated.
