

FORM 2.14D CITY ELECTED OFFICIAL QUARTERLY REPORT INSTRUCTIONS

INSTRUCTIONS: This form, which contains three (3) parts, must be filed 15 days after the end of every quarter by City elected officials. The following sections identify political consultants, if any, providing political consulting services during the previous quarter in support of a City elected official's candidacy and for any City-referred measures sponsored. Within 15 days of any change to the below information, an amendment must be filed using this form.

To complete the report, sign and date the form and email via PDF to:
Deborah.scroggin@portlandoregon.gov. If signed by electronic signature, press the submit button following part three to submit the form directly.

KEY DEFINITIONS: Per Portland City Code Chapter 2.14, the definition of the terms "political consultant" and "political consulting services", as used in this form, are defined below:

Political Consultant means a person or entity that provides Political Consulting Services to a City elected official or successful candidate for elected office, or a successful candidate's principal campaign committee, registered with the Oregon Secretary of State. The term "Political Consultant" does not include attorneys who provide only legal services, accountants who provide only accounting services, professional fundraisers, or pollsters who provide only polling services. The term "Political Consultant" does not include a person who:

- Does not engage in Political Consulting Services as a trade or profession, or
- Is a City employee

Political Consulting Services include actions in campaign management and political strategy services, including but not limited to: advocacy and strategy; political polling; advising or assisting in voter contact strategies and services; advising in media strategy, buying and advertisement; providing candidate development, policy training, political image consulting, and designing, implementing and analyzing polls and surveys; performing issues research and opposition research; developing, assisting in strategic communication such as news releases, talking points and speech writing; and advising on negative information handling and political crisis management. This Chapter does not regulate the content and viewpoint of the services provided to a City elected official.

Addendum to Form 2.14D, Part II

I am supporting Measure 26-179. Because I was not the “sponsor” of the Council referral as defined by City Code Chapter 2.04, I am technically exempt from disclosure under Part II.

However, I voted to refer the measure to the voters, and am helping to lead the campaign.

Therefore, in the spirit of transparency, I make the following disclosure:

I have been working with the following consultants:

1. Hannah Prentice, fundraising.
Hannah@yesforaffordablehomes.com
2. Christine Lewis, campaign manager.
Christine@yesforaffordablehomes.com
