

4) a detailed description of what the management plan is for each site and who ,specifically,is responsible for it's implementation and results needs to be published before any vote is taken.