

Milton Jones

#277888 | March 16, 2021

Testimony to Portland City Council on the Shelter to Housing Continuum Project, Recommended Draft

One positive step the City could take is to lean hard on the County to provide the mental health services the County is responsible for. The same County that just spent $300 million to build itself a very deluxe courthouse on some of the most expensive property in the State. Stop being nice about this.

Testimony is presented without formatting.