

john jolliff

#278710 | March 22, 2021

Testimony to Portland City Council on the Shelter to Housing Continuum Project, Recommended Draft

The idea of providing for those in need through just providing money is ineffective. If you cannot supply full support to getting those in need to being productive citizens then all is for not. You are just throwing away money. My money. Using a program that works for temporary results is useless. It is just throwing away millions of tax dollars for NOTHING

Testimony is presented without formatting.