

Joseph Tennant

#278735 | March 23, 2021

Testimony to Portland City Council on the Shelter to Housing Continuum Project, Recommended Draft

Perhaps the City and Metro should acquire property in the suburbs, (similar to the original working farm for homeless in Troutdale, that is now McMennamin's Edgefield Manor property) and consolidate the homeless with appropriate other services in a centralized location, rather than a piecemeal situation that is not coordinated amongst the various nonprofits.

Testimony is presented without formatting.