

Jeffrey Blank

#279158 | March 26, 2021

Testimony to Portland City Council on the Shelter to Housing Continuum Project, Recommended Draft

Opening up parks to homeless camping is not a good idea for portland. Our city has turned into a dump, and opening up our few parks to camping would take away what little prestine greenspace we all cherish. There are plenty of open spaces (parking lots, empty non-residential parcels, etc) that would more easily and safely serve the homeless population.

Testimony is presented without formatting.