23.10.020 Definitions.

(Amended by Ordinance No. 187678, effective May 13, 2016.) For purposes of this Chapter, the following definitions apply:

- A. “City” means the City of Portland as defined in Title 1 of the Code of the City of Portland.

- D. “Conditional Offer of Employment” means any offer for a position that is conditioned solely on:
  - 1. The results of an Employer’s inquiry into or gathering of information about a person’s arrest or conviction history; and/or
  - 2. Some other contingency expressly communicated to the applicant at the time of the offer.

23.10.030 Use of Criminal History in Employment Decisions.

- A. It is an unlawful practice for an Employer to exclude an applicant from consideration solely because of the applicant’s criminal history.
- B. An Employer may consider an applicant’s criminal history in the hiring process only after making a Conditional Offer of Employment. An Employer violates this Chapter if an Employer accesses an applicant’s criminal history prior to making a Conditional Offer of Employment.
- C. It is not an unlawful practice for an Employer to rescind a Conditional Offer of Employment based upon an applicant’s criminal history if an Employer determines in good faith that a specific offense or conduct is job related for the position in question and consistent with business necessity.
- D. In making the determination of whether an applicant’s criminal history is job related for the position in question and consistent with business necessity, an Employer must conduct an individualized assessment of:
  - 1. The nature and gravity of the criminal offense;
  - 2. The time that has elapsed since the criminal offense took place; and
  - 3. The nature of the Employment held or sought.
- E. Nothing in this Section prevents an employer from considering an applicant’s criminal history after making a conditional offer of employment, except that an employer shall not consider:

TITLE 23

23.10.040 Exceptions.

- A. The prohibitions in this Chapter do not apply:
1. If federal, state or local law, including corresponding rules and regulations, requires the consideration of an applicant's criminal history;
  2. To an employer that is a law enforcement agency;
  3. To an employer in the criminal justice system; or
  4. To an employer seeking a nonemployee volunteer.
- B. For the following positions, an Employer may consider an applicant's criminal history at any point in the hiring process, and may use the City Criminal History Matrix provided by administrative rule to screen applicants, but must nonetheless comply with all other requirements of this Chapter. An individualized assessment shall be required for any criminal convictions not contained on the City Criminal History Matrix.
1. Positions involving direct access to or the provision of services to children, the elderly, persons with disabilities, persons with a mental illness, or individuals with alcohol or drug dependence or substance abuse disorders;

23.10.090 Severability.

If a provision of this Chapter or application thereof to any person or circumstance is judged invalid, the invalidity shall not affect the other provisions or application of the Chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Chapter are declared severable.
