AMERICAN RESCUE PLAN

Relief and Recovery for Artists of Color

$2M to be deployed by the City Arts Program in 2022-2024

Activating the IFCC ($500,000)

Providing free space and residency grants to artists to present public programs at the Interstate Firehouse Cultural Center, which is emerging as a Center for Black Arts and Culture.

Support for Artists in Under-represented Communities ($500,000)

Grants for under-represented Black, Indigenous, other People of Color (BIPOC) artists and/or other historically under-served and under-represented artists. This also includes, but is not limited to, LGBTQIA+ artists and artist with disabilities. These grants are designed to support underrepresented BIPOC artists most negatively impacted due to Covid impacts.

Indigenous Public Art ($500,000)

Procuring and installing artworks that celebrate Indigenous culture in the Cully neighborhood.

Resiliency Grants for Cultural Organizations ($500,000)

Grants to community-based cultural nonprofit organizations that are led by and serving Black, Indigenous, other People of Color and/or other historically under-served and under-represented communities. This also includes, but is not limited to, organizations led by and serving LGBTQIA+ communities and with people with disabilities. These grants are designed to reinvigorate artistic programming in these communities.

CREATING OUR FUTURE:

A new cultural plan for the Portland metro region

Coming this summer!

A new cultural planning process to:

- assess the state of arts and culture in the Portland metro region,
- identify opportunities,
- address inequities, and
- develop a clear vision, goals and strategies for arts and culture.
