Legislation title: *Provide emergency housing services by extending the duration of a housing emergency and continuing the current housing emergency (Ordinance)

Contact name: Mark Bond
Contact phone: (503) 865-6406
Presenter name: Commissioner Dan Ryan

Purpose of proposed legislation and background information:

Extends the 2015 Housing State of Emergency for thirty-six months (to March 22, 2025).
The State of Emergency:

- Allows for temporary general regulations to be waived to site up to two storage units
- Allows the City to provide emergency shelter and emergency housing services for the duration of the State of Emergency
- Changes 15.04.040 of Portland City Code so that the initial duration of a housing emergency declaration shall not exceed one year but may be extended in three-year increments instead of six-month increments.

This is the fifth extension of the Housing State of emergency. The previous Ordinances were:

- Ordinance 187371, declared a housing emergency for a period of one year (ending October 7, 2015).
- Ordinance 187973, extended the housing emergency declared in 2015 for one year (ending September 7, 2016).
- Ordinance 188627, further extended the housing emergency for an eighteen-month duration (ending October 4, 2017).
- Ordinance 189387, further extended the housing emergency for a twenty-four-month duration (ending February 12, 2019).
- Ordinance 190342, further extended the housing emergency for a twelve-month duration (ending March 31, 2021).

Financial and budgetary impacts:

There are no direct or immediate financial and budgetary impacts of extending the Housing State of Emergency

Community impacts and community involvement:

The State of Emergency may impact all Portlanders, as the houselessness and housing affordability crisis continues to be one of the city's top priorities.

100% Renewable Goal: N/A
