Proclamation

Proclaim March 31, 2022 to be Transgender Day of Visibility

Placed on File

Whereas, Transgender, Transmasculine, Transfeminine, Non-binary, Genderqueer, Genderfluid, Two-spirit, Agender, and gender non-conforming people have always existed and made important contributions to their communities; and

Whereas, Transphobic cultures, including that of the United States, continue to suppress the existence and contributions of transgender and gender non-conforming people; and

Whereas, Transphobia requires disparities negatively affecting transgender and gender non-conforming people in health, housing, employment, and all major aspects of life; and

Whereas, white supremacy, ableism, anti-Blackness, misogyny and Transphobia are interconnected and depend on the continued violence against Black, Indigenous, and other people of color who are transgender or gender non[1]conforming, particularly Black transgender women; and

Whereas, houselessness- and housing-services providers consistently fail to provide safe, welcoming, and knowledgeable support for Transgender and gender non-conforming people experiencing houselessness; and

Whereas, among cities in the United States, Portland is home to the second-largest percentage of LGBTQ+ people per capita, including transgender and gender non-conforming people; and

Whereas, the City of Portland strives to make our community safe and empowering for its Transgender and gender non[1]conforming residents; and

Whereas, the City has not yet succeeded in this endeavor; and

Whereas, visibility for Transgender people is complex and nuanced and should not be a precondition for justice; and

Whereas, Transgender Day of Visibility is an opportunity for the Portland City Commission and the city as a whole to recommit to partnering with the community to address our challenges and investing in City infrastructure that
