I'm for law and order including "broken window" policies. I've seen how New York City was cleaned up under Giuliani and Bloomberg. Portland is a disgrace. The mayor is educated (Stanford, Columbia, Harvard) beyond his capacity.

Camping should be strictly forbidden with shelter-first programs. Shelter could be like army barracks, or prisoner of war camps for repeat offenders. In my West Germany U.S. Army service, troops lived year-around in winterized tents at mountain-top microwave radio sites; shelter-first can be done.

Prosecutors should be fired for not prosecuting. Law breakers, even minor offenders, should not be released without bail.

Hopefully the election will take care of the defund the police politicians. Again, Portland is a disgrace.
