As a third generation business owner in SE Portland that has had about enough and is suffering from Portland's lack of leadership, I wonder how much faith you think I should put into this plan. All five points involve spending more money on the homeless at taxpayer expense. That has been Portland's course under your "leadership" over the last several years and I have to think, is that plan working? Have you considered taking a more aggressive stance towards the homeless and stop making Portland a haven for these people with taxpayer provided handouts? Thanks for your consideration.
