

AUHR 3.05 EMPLOYMENT OF MINORS

Rule

The employment of minors under the age of 18 is strictly regulated by state and federal wage and hour laws. These restrictions include the type of work minors may perform and the hours during which they may be employed. The Auditor's Office may hire minors to perform work to generally augment some of their staffing needs but must ensure strict compliance with all regulations regarding their employment.

Definition of a Minor

Children between 14-17 years of age are minors. The laws regulating their employment are enforced by the State of Oregon Bureau of Labor and Industries. (BOLI) and the US Department of Labor (DOL).

Child Labor Laws

Where DOL and BOLI regulations differ, the stricter standard applies.

Minimum Wage

Established by Oregon State Law.

Hiring Process

Hiring a minor is similar to filling a seasonal position and requires:

1. A completed Employment Application; and a
2. Necessary personnel actions to add employee to the payroll.

Minors may not be employed unless the City has been issued a current annual Employment Certificate by BOLI. The City does not employ minors under the age of 14.

Other requirements:

1. Proof of age: copy of the birth certificate, driver's license, baptismal record, etc.

2. Job description including equipment used: copiers, computers, power equipment, vehicles, etc.
3. Work Schedule: the earliest and latest work hours.
4. Parent/School Authorization Form signed by parent/guardian and high school (if in session).

Employer's Employment Certificate

The Bureau of Human Resources will maintain an annual Employment Certificate authorizing the employment of minors by the City. The Auditor's Office will report the number of minors it expects to hire in the next fiscal year so that the Bureau of Human Resources can file an application with the Bureau of Labor and Industries (BOLI) on behalf of the City authorizing such employment.

Validated Employment Certificates shall be posted in conspicuous locations at the sites where minors are employed. The Auditor's Office is responsible for the proper posting of the certificate.
