Group Agreements:

- Listen to understand, not to respond. Listen for learning opportunities. Do not prepare a response; just listen.
- W.A.I.T: Use self-awareness by asking yourself “Why Am I Talking?” Remember everyone has the right to share their ideas, but not everyone always has the opportunity.
- Assume good intentions but attend to impact. We are all good people looking to collaborate for better outcomes. Not all good intentions lead to good outcomes; if someone is hurt, focus on listening and understanding the impact, not on the intent.
- Be willing to make mistakes and be forgiving of those who do. Forgiveness fosters safety so we can all take risks. We make mistakes, even with good intentions. By making mistakes, we ultimately learn how to do things better.
- Allow for, and appreciate, disagreement of opinions, ideas, methods – respectfully. Don’t interrupt someone just because you disagree with them. Listen to understand; you may find you have something in common. Critique ideas, not people.
- Personal stories stay, lessons can be shared. After the meeting, comments, ideas and thoughts will be attributed to any individual – this is a group learning process. If you share a personal story, let people know if or how your story can be shared.
- Speak clearly and concisely and use audio amplification to ensure all can hear.

Portland Engagement Project– Presented by Johnathon Cruz from Pregame

- Learn about the goals of Portland Engagement Project
- Learn about ways to include voices not in this meeting
- Gather input on three questions:
  1. If you need to tell the City something, or get information from the City, are you happy with your options?
  2. What is your idea for how the City could communicate better with you?
  3. How would you like to be involved with the City’s decisions and direction?

LGBTQ+ Historic Landmark Designation Project Update and Next Steps – Cayla McGrail

Update on the implementation of feedback from the project's CIC presentation, where we are at in the outreach, suggestions for improvement and continuing to move the work forward.
