Honorable Sir:

In reply to your favor of recent date, I wish to say that I am very pleased at your acceptance of my invitation to be present at the Pickens lecture and to welcome Dr. Pickens to the City.

If possible, be sure to remain throughout the entire program which will be brief as we must be out of the auditorium not later than 10:30 and too, many of our people have already asked the question whether or not you will say a few words and then leave or whether you will remain to hear Dr. Picken's message.

Thanking you for all past courtesies, I am

Respectfully yours,

Honorable Sir:

We have arranged for a big meeting to be held July 25th in the interest of the Race at which time Dean William Pickens of Baltimore Md., will deliver the principal address. Dean Pickens is a graduate of Yale University with the highest honors in his class. He has travelled abroad and is known at home and abroad as an ORATOR. He is without a doubt the foremost orator on the American stage today. It is our desire to have a large audience of both white and black citizens of this State to be present to hear this great man.

We would consider it a great honor to have your presence on that evening to welcome Dr. Pickens in behalf of the City.

May I put you down for same?

Kindly let me hear from you at your earliest convenience as we are anxious to get our program and advertising under way.

Yours for a bigger, broader and better city,

BoultonMrs. E. D. Cannady

Dear Mr. Arbury:

Our club so greatly appreciated the very efficient manner in which Walter Jenkins assisted us in making the Trout and Bear Meat breakfast, for the National Editors Association at Eagle Creek, such a success, we feel that we should advise you of this appreciation.

The writer has come in contact with a great many live wires during the past few years, but does not recall a single person who has come to Portland, and within such a short time, has become such a universal favorite, as "Walt"; it seems there is no entertainment, luncheon or gathering of any kind put over successfully without "Walt's" participating.

At our recent Trustees meeting, the writer was requested to write you these few words of appreciation, and we wish that it might be possible to continue your splendid work in our community, and also continue Walter Jenkins in the splendid work he is doing.

Very truly yours,

You are cordially invited to attend an informal reception in honor of the ladies of the editorial staffs of the Portland newspapers, to be given by the Portland Press club on Wednesday evening, April 23, at eight-thirty o'clock.

The place will be in the club rooms, second floor of the Elks' building.

It will be Ladies' night at the club and every member is expected to bring his wife. Those who haven't such treasurers are expected to bring their sweethearts, their mothers, sisters or some other fellow's wife.

There will be an interesting program, containing some surprises. Refreshments and other things to make the evening complete in every particular will be provided.

Don't forget the time. Don't forget the place. Don't forget the girl.

Dear Mr. Baker:

This is to confirm ^{our} A telephone conversation of this morning in which you consented to introduce Mayor Ole Hanson at the Auditorium on Friday evening. Mayor Hanson will arrive in the city Friday morning and we will put him up at the Hotel Benson. At noon Friday, the Press Club will entertain him at luncheon. This will probably be at the Hotel Portland.

I will let you know definitely about this later. We shall count upon you to be a guest of honor on this occasion, as well as being present as a member of our club.

Mayor Hanson will give his address under the auspices of the club and his subject will be "Americanism versus Bolshevism". With these facts and knowing Mr. Hanson as you do, I know you will have no handicap in properly introducing the visitor.

If it can be so arranged, we would like to have all of the city officials upon the platform. Wish you would let me know as to the feasibility of this and I shall be pleased to take the proper steps toward issuing necessary invitations. Thanking you personally and also on behalf of the club, I remain
