Emergency Ordinance

*Pay settlement of Heather-Lynne Van Wilde bodily injury lawsuit for $26,000 involving the Portland Police Bureau

Passed

The City of Portland ordains:

Section 1. The Council finds:

1. Heather-Lynne Van Wilde, through attorney Jane Moisan, has filed a lawsuit against the City for injuries resulting from an encounter with Portland Police officers on August 23, 2020.
2. The lawsuit has been investigated by Risk Management Services. The investigation indicates there is risk the City may be found liable. Therefore, in order to avoid the risk of an adverse jury award, we feel it is prudent to compromise the lawsuit at this time.
3. Risk Management Services recommends the lawsuit be compromised for the total sum of $26,000, subject to the claimant providing the City with a release in a form to be approved by the City Attorney.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Council directs:

- A. The Mayor and City Auditor are hereby authorized to draw and deliver a check in the amount of $26,000 made payable to People's Law Project Client Trust.
- B. Risk Management Services will execute a payment authorization in the amount set forth in sub-paragraph (A) above.

Section 2. The Council declares that an emergency exists in order to avoid undue and costly delay in settling this bodily injury lawsuit; therefore, this Ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage by the Council.

An ordinance when passed by the Council shall be signed by the Auditor. It shall be carefully filed and preserved in the custody of the Auditor (City Charter Chapter 2 Article 1 Section 2-122)
