708-2023

Report

Accept the 2022 Annual Report of the Portland Police Bureau

Accepted
REPORT TO COUNCIL

Date: July 19, 2023
To: City Council
From: Chief Charles Lovell III
Re: Accept the 2022 Annual Report of the Portland Police Bureau

The Portland Police Bureau's (PPB) Annual Report for 2022 (2022 Report) is attached as Exhibit A. Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement in United States of America v. City of Portland, Case No. 3:12-cv-02265-SI, as amended, PPB shall issue a publicly available annual report which shall include a summary of its problem-solving and community policing activities. In May of 2023 and prior to the 2022 Report being finalized and publicly released, a draft copy was provided to the Portland Committee on Community Engaged Policing (PCCEP) for its review. PPB received both feedback from PCCEP and the community at a PCCEP meeting on June 14, 2023, and invited additional written comments until June 30, 2023. PPB also held meetings in each of its precincts on July 20, 25, and 27, 2023, respectively, and is now presenting the 2022 Report to Council.

I recommend Council accept the report.

Charles Lovell III
Chief of Police

Financial and Budgetary Impacts

No budgetary impact.

Community Impacts and Community Involvement

Prior to the 2022 Report being finalized and publicly released, it was provided to the Portland Committee on Community Engaged Policing (PCCEP) for its review and comment in a public meeting with community member attendees, and it was revised in response to that feedback. In July, 2023, the Portland Police Bureau (PPB) held meetings in each precinct area on PPB's 2022 Annual Report, and Police Chief Lovell and the precinct commanders responded to questions from community members.

100% Renewable Goal

Not applicable.

Budget Office Financial Impact Analysis

No fiscal impact.
