In 1987, the citizens of Portland, Oregon, USA chose Ashkelon, Israel as a sister-city and established PASCA. Our sister-city association was created to foster industrial, economic, educational and cultural exchanges. Our relationship encourages cultural understanding between our citizens. Ashkelon has a major hospital, Barzelai, that serves the entire region including Gazans, that we are most concerned about.

Declamation Platform for Peace

pkzca.org/платформ-за-мир-в-україне/

PKSCA declaims this Platform for Peace to articulate a basis for the end of hostilities between Russia and Ukraine:

- That is consistent with international law;
- That recognizes the preeminence of human rights over the juridical rights of nation-states;
- That is culturally equitable; and
- Which ensures the well-being of the Russian and Ukrainian peoples in perpetuity.

A PLATFORM FOR PEACE IN UKRAINE

PREAMBLE

With deep respect for the Russian people, and acting in accordance with the purpose for which the Portland-Khabarovsk Sister City Association (hereinafter "the Association") was organized thirty-six years ago, to wit:

to foster and promote cultural, social, educational, and economic relations and to further international understanding, friendship, and goodwill between Portland, Oregon and Khabarovsk, Russia, and to promote the well-being of the public at-large the Board of Directors of the Association declaims this Platform for Peace to articulate a basis for the end of hostilities between Russia and Ukraine that is consistent with international law, that recognizes the preeminence of human rights over the juridical rights of nation-states, that is culturally equitable, and which ensures the well-being of the Russian and Ukrainian peoples in perpetuity.

The Board of Directors of the Association hereby recommends to its Members and to all others who may wish to endorse this Platform for Peace the following Articles.

Portland-Khabarovsk Sister City Association
Portland, Oregon pkscsa.org

ARTICLES

Art. 1. We understand the history of the region in which Russia and Ukraine coexist but believe that present-day circumstances require adherence to, and mutual respect for, their shared international boundary in the interests of peace and prosperity.

Art. 2. We recognize Russia and Ukraine, individually and equally, as nation-states with all rights afforded under international law, including but not limited to the inviolability of their territorial limits as declared in the Belovezha Accords and as later affirmed by acts of lawfully authorized representatives of the former Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

Art. 3. We believe that militarily imposed "spheres of influence" are antithetical to the sovereignty of modern nation-states and that in an age of long-range missiles, satellites and nuclear armaments that such attempts at hegemony are counterproductive. Fair competition for the affinity and cooperation of neighboring nation-states should be encouraged.

Art. 4. We oppose any aggression that imperils the Russian people or Russia's sovereignty. We oppose any aggression that imperils the Ukrainian people or Ukraine's sovereignty. We understand that some Russian people (or "peoples") live in Ukraine and that some Ukrainian people (or "peoples") live in Russia. Nevertheless, we reject irredentism as irreconcilable with the concept of a modern nation-state. Likewise, we call on both Russia and Ukraine to protect all peoples living within their territorial limits without discrimination and irrespective of their claimed nationality, heritage or cultural affinity. Cultural norms and practices, so long as they do not infringe upon basic human rights or substantially impair the rights of nation-states, must be protected wherever they exist.

Art. 5. As a corollary to the rights of nation-states as juridical persons (e.g., as a practical legal construct dating back to the Peace of Westphalia), we believe that emigration and immigration across territorial boundaries must be recognized as a basic human right subject only to balancing against the territorial rights of nation-states.

Art. 6. We understand that the military power of nation-states can be usurped by individual and/or corporate actors to advance their private interests. We urge all nation-states to enact and enforce such statutes as necessary to ensure that private interests falsely purported to be national interests are not advanced by the military power of nation-states.

Art. 7. We understand that some defensive postures can be fairly perceived as aggression and urge all nations to mutually and cooperatively disarm and stand down as necessary to assure peace among all nation-states.

ЗА МИР В УКРАИНЕ

ПРЕАМБУЛА

Испытывая глубокое уважение к российскому народу и действуя в соответствии с целью, ради которой тридцать шесть лет назад была учреждена Ассоциация городов-побратимов Портленд-Хабаровск (далее «Ассоциация»), а именно:

развивать и поощрять культурные, социальные, образовательные и экономические отношения, а также способствовать международному взаимопониманию, дружбе и доброй воле между Портлендом, штат Орегон, и Хабаровском, Россия, и содействовать благополучию общества в целом

Совет директоров Ассоциации представляет настоящую Платформу за мир, целью которой является определение основы для прекращения военных действий между Россией и Украиной, соответствующей нормам международного права, признающей приоритет прав человека над юридическими правами национальных государств, а также обеспечивающей культурное равноправие и благосостояние российского и украинского народов на неограниченный срок.

Совет директоров Ассоциации настоящим рекомендует своим членам и другим лицам, которые могут испытывать желание поддержать данную Платформу мира, следующие статьи.

СТАТЬИ

Ст. 1. Мы понимаем историю региона, в котором сосуществуют Россия и Украина, но считаем, что текущие обстоятельства требуют соблюдения и взаимного уважения их общих международных границ в интересах мира и процветания.

Ст. 2. Мы признаем Россию и Украину, по отдельности и в равной степени, как национальные государства, обладающие всеми правами, предоставляемыми международным правом, включая, помимо прочего, право на территориальную целостность, провозглашенное в Беловежских соглашениях и в дальнейшем подтвержденное актами закононо уполномоченных представителей бывшего СССР.

Ст. 3. Мы считаем, что навязанные военным путем «сферы влияния» противоречат суверенитету современных национальных государств и что в эпоху ракет дальнего радиуса действия, спутников и ядерных вооружений подобные попытки гегемонии приведут к обратным результатам. Необходимо поощрять честную конкуренцию за сближение и сотрудничество соседних национальных государств.

Ст. 4. Мы выступаем против любой агрессии, угрожающей российскому народу или суверенитету России. Мы выступаем против любой агрессии, угрожающей украинскому народу или суверенитету Украины. Мы понимаем, что некоторые россияне (или народы) живут в Украине, а некоторые украинцы (или народы) – в России. Тем не менее, мы не приемлем ирредентизм как нечто несовместимое с представлением о современном национальном государстве. Мы также призываем и Россию, и Украину защищать все народы, проживающие в их территориальных пределах, не допуская дискриминации и независимо от их заявленной национальности, исторического наследия или культурной близости. Если культурные нормы и обычаи не ущемляют основных прав человека и не наносят существенного ущерба правам национальных государств, они должны защищаться независимо от того, где существуют.

Ст. 5. Исходя из прав национальных государств как юридических лиц (например, практическая правовая конструкция, заложённая еще во времена Вестфальского мира), мы считаем, что эмиграция и иммиграция через территориальные границы должны быть признаны одними из основных прав человека только при условии их уравнивания с территориальными правами национальных государств.

Ст. 6. Мы отдаем себе отчет в том, что военная мощь национальных государств может быть узурпирована физическими лицами и/или корпорациями для продвижения своих частных интересов. Мы призываем все национальные государства принять такие законы и обеспечить их соблюдение, что исключит возможность продвижения частных целей, ложно выдаваемых за «национальные интересы», с помощью военных сил этих государств.

Ст. 7. Мы понимаем, что некоторые оборонительные меры могут вполне обоснованно восприниматься как агрессия, и призываем все страны к взаимному и совместному разоружению и отступлению, если это необходимо для обеспечения мира между всеми национальными государствами.

International Mural by Mail – Exhibition

The International Mural by Mail Network offered the opportunity for networking and communicating visually with other artists on a global scale including Portland and Suzhou. John Teply Atelier initiated a series of large-scale murals, created jointly by two artists of diverse cultural backgrounds and artistic persuasion, in a collaborative exchange entirely by mail. John Teply interviewed Hobart using zoom from the Lloyd Center. PSSCA Board member Christina Jinghui Li translated for Hobart. A most interesting presentation and encounter between the two artists.

Vyshyvanka Day With Us!

Vyshyvanka Day is a Ukrainian holiday, dedicated to preserving the rich traditions of creating and wearing vyshyvankas. This observance is deeply rooted in Ukrainian culture and has gained global prominence. People worldwide now wear vyshyvankas in solidarity with Ukraine.

Rose Festival

June 2023

The week of the Rose Festival included two firsts for our organization. For the first time in Portland's history, the Friendship Signing Ceremony at the Portland Sister City and Royal Rosarians Rose Festival Reception included representatives of Portland-Lviv Friendship City Association adding our President's signature to the Sister City Proclamation.

Our organization was also invited to join members of the Ukrainian community of Oregon as a group marching in the Grand Floral Parade. It was a great pleasure to be part of this cherished Portland tradition.

Visit to Lviv

August 2023

In August 2023, our President and Secretary traveled to Lviv. Due to ongoing Russian invasion and acts of terror against civilians, there is no civilian air traffic over Ukraine, so all travel into Ukraine is by car, bus, train, or on foot. Our members were warmly met in Lviv and had several meetings, both with Lviv City administration officials and members of Lviv public who had been working towards a sister city relationship between our two cities for a number of years.

Instagram celebrity #lvivcitycat Levchyk ("Little Lion") also welcomed us at the City Hall in his official capacity as Cat Mayor of Lviv. He let us hold him and pet him before hurrying to another appointment.

At the invitation of Ms. Dzhyhovska, we toured Unbroken Rehabilitation Center. Since the start of the all-out Russian invasion in 2022, Lviv has become a major humanitarian and medical center providing shelter to hundreds of thousands of refugees from the occupied areas of Ukraine and offering medical and other services to its growing population.

Visit to Lviv

August 2023

Visit to Lviv offered many opportunities to enjoy the city's art, culture, coffeeshops and bookstores.

We also had the pleasure of touring the new campus of Ukrainian Catholic University based on the master plan developed by University of Oregon Associate Professor Gerald Gast and graduate students from the Urban Projects Workshop at the College of Design in Portland.

Most of our days and some nights in Lviv were interrupted by air raid alarms; we had to get accustomed to going to bomb shelters as part of Lviv's reality of a city in wartime.

Coffee with Lviv

February 24, 2024

“Coffee with Lviv” was our first event of 2024 starting early on Saturday, February 24, 2024. We met at 7 am at Just Bob on NE Alberta for an early morning Lviv Latte and a live link to Lviv. Many community members got up early on a Saturday to join our event and say Hello! to people in Lviv. Our counterparts in Lviv connected from a Lviv art space where they enjoyed afternoon coffee and opportunities to speak to people in Portland.

Believe in Ukraine

February 24, 2024

At Pioneer Square—the Heart of Portland—Portlanders joined people in over 100 cities around the world in marking a decade of Ukrainian resilience in their struggle against Russian imperialism. Civic and religious leaders, and different community organizations, including Portland-Lviv Friendship City Association, participated in the event. Ukrainian and American anthems and songs were performed by second generation Ukrainian Americans and newly arrived refugees from Russian occupied Mariupol and other areas of Ukraine.

Vyshyvanka Day

May 16, 2024

Many joined us for Vyshyvanka Day at Lucky Lab in NW Portland. We talked into the night, only pausing for pictures while it was still daylight.

So many different embroideries—colors, patterns—from different areas of Ukraine. Such beautiful and diversity!

Thank you!
