

LOWER SOUTHEAST RISING

Online Open House OPEN THROUGH JUNE 30, 2022

The Lower Southeast Rising Area Plan is studying land use and transportation issues in Brentwood-Darlington and portions of the Ardenwald-Johnson Creek, Lents, Mt. Scott-Arleta, and Woodstock neighborhoods. We have heard about needs and issues in the project area through community engagement over the past year. Now your input is needed to evaluate options and priorities for the project area.

You are invited to learn more through the self-guided online open house and share your feedback through a survey. To participate, visit portland.gov/lower-se-rising.
