Director's Report

1. Independent Police Review (IPR) Division Work Plan / Accomplishments

Citizen Review Committee (CRC) Recruitment:

Six new CRC members, one male and five female, were appointed by Portland City Council for three-year terms on February 11th at 9:30 am. The outstanding new CRC members are:

Julie Ramos
Vanessa Yarie
Kristin Malone
Kiosha Ford
Julie Falk
Angelo Turner

Handouts of the biographies for the new members are available and are also posted on the IPR website: <http://www.portlandonline.com/auditor/index.cfm?c=53654&a=7395> .

IPR Responds to Scene of Officer-Involved Shooting:

Assistant Program Manager Rachel Mortimer responded to the scene of the officer-involved shooting that occurred on February 17. The investigation is ongoing.

NACOLE training in Seattle:

Director Constantin Severe and Investigator Erin Playman attended a one-day training in Seattle organized by the National Association for Civilian Oversight of Law Enforcement (NACOLE) entitled "Moving Beyond Discipline: The Role of Civilians in Police Accountability." CRC Member Bridget Donegan was also in attendance.

Changes to Case File Review Process and Timeline:

On March 11 at 2:00 pm Director Severe will be presenting proposed changes to City Council regarding the Case File Review process and the timeline for requesting an appeal. These changes are in accordance with the Department of Justice settlement agreement and were developed with the cooperation of CRC members and recommendations from the public.

IPR Community Outreach

Community Outreach Coordinator Irene Konev attended and networked at the Community Peace Collaborative, Say Hey, City Club of Portland Friday Forum session – “Can the Portland Police Really Change” along with Assistant Director Anika Bent-Albert and gave updates on IPR and CRC to the Community and Police Relations Committee. She also led the Slavic Advisory Council meeting.

Konev, Auditor Mary Hull Caballero and IPR Investigator Casey Bieberich attended and networked at Fix-it Fair at David Douglas High School. Bieberich, Konev and Intern Kayse Crump presented to the PPS Reconnection staff on the IPR commendation/complaint process. IPR Investigators began a series of dialogues with the customers of Sisters of the Road, and meet at their Café twice a month to expand awareness of IPR.

IPR Director Constantin Severe served on the panel at Race Talks and presented on the role of IPR and CRC in Portland's police oversight capacity. IPR staff and CRC also attended this event and engaged with the community and police.
