Director's Report

1. Independent Police Review (IPR) Work Plan / Accomplishments

IPR is Hiring a Complaint Investigator

A recruitment ended and 191 applications were received. Interviews are being scheduled.

Police Review Board Recruitment

The Police Review Board recruitment ended on July 14th and 24 applications were received. The selection committee interviewed and selected 17 applicants for consideration to the City Auditor. The selection committee consisted of IPR Program Manager Assistant Rachel Mortimer, CRC vice Chair Julie Ramos, former CRC member Donna Oden - Orr, former Police Review Board members Susan Steinman and Rob Kodiriy. The Board makes recommendations to the Chief regarding findings and discipline and may make recommendations regarding adequacy and completeness of an investigation. The Board may also make policy or training recommendations to the Chief. Board members are appointed by Portland City Council to serve three-year terms. Newly selected Board members will be announced next month.

Community Outreach

IPR Community Outreach Coordinator Irene Konev was busy this month finalizing the PRB recruitment and coordinating the interviews. She attended and networked at the Coalition of Community of Color Fundraising event, made a presentation to program participants of Healthy Baby Initiative, presented the IPR and CRC commendations complaint process in Russian to Russian Radio 7 audiences and attended the National Night Out events at Hacienda CDC. Konev and IPR director Constantin Severe attended the City Council Town Hall meeting on the Proposed Changes to Police Accountability Processes in City Code.

Community Feedback

- Russian speaking audiences appreciate that IPR is an independent civilian police oversight process, and are requesting more information about government transparency and accountability of the Portland City Auditor's Office.
- Community members request that the CRC appeal process remains open to the public.
