Director's Report

1. Independent Police Review (IPR) Work Plan / Accomplishments

Citizen Review Committee Volunteer Recruitment

The Citizen Review Committee (CRC) recruitment ended on February 8th. IPR received thirteen applications for one position. Four people are invited for an interview. A CRC member will be selected and announced next month.

Police Review Board

Three Police Review Board members were reappointed by Portland City Council to serve their second three-year term. The Police Review Board is an advisory body to the Chief of the Portland Police Bureau. The Board makes recommendations to the Chief regarding findings and discipline and may make recommendations regarding the adequacy and completeness of an investigation.

Community Outreach

IPR Community Outreach Coordinator Irene Konev built awareness of IPR and actively recruited volunteers to apply for the CRC. She engaged with community at the Family Violence Coordination Council Know Your Rights meeting, Say Hey Northwest, The Pitch, Portland Women in Technology and Women in Environment Networking events. She attended the Slavic Advisory Council meeting, and build connection with community and police at Breaking Bread and Barriers dinner. CRC member Marisea Rivera joined Konev to connect with SE residents at the City sponsored Fix-it Fair at Madison High School.

Portland City Auditor Mary Hull Caballero, IPR Director Constantin Severe and CRC Chair Kristin Malone presented on Community Oversight of the Portland Police at The Alliance, a service-oriented group of the First Unitarian Church of Portland.
