Thank you to City Council for voting today to expand the Inclusionary Housing program's full-building tax exemption so that the program is balanced, and will further spur affordable housing development. Coupled with the larger housing regulatory relief packaged from our partners at the Bureau of Planning and Sustainability, this will make a major impact on housing development in our city. PHB Interim Director Michael Buonocore was pleased to join Commissioner Carmen Rubio and Chief Planner Patricia Diefenderfer to answer media inquiries after the vote.

On June 4, 2010, Kyron was taken to Skyline Elementary School by his stepmother Terri Horman (Moulton), [5] who then stayed with him while he attended a science fair.[6] Terri Horman stated that she left the school at around 8:45 a.m. and that she last remembered seeing Kyron walking down the hall to his class.[7] However, Kyron was never seen in his first class and was instead marked as absent that day. Terri's statements to the police indicate that, after leaving the school at 8:45 a.m., she ran errands at two different Fred Meyer grocery stores until about 10:10 a.m.[8] Between then and 11:39 a.m., she stated that she was driving her daughter around town in an attempt to use the motion of the vehicle to soothe the toddler's earache. Terri said that she then went to a local gym and exercised until about 12:40 p.m. https://en.m.wikipedia.org/wiki/Disappearance_of_Kyron_Horman Bureaucracy gone wild! Where is the common sense?

"C'mon, Ted Wheeler, Commissioner Rene Gonzalez, Commissioner Mingus Mapps, Commissioner Carmen Rubio, Commissioner Dan Ryan:

Can we get an executive order or some immediate action to stop kicking people when they are down? City staff is requiring a retroactive "permit?" Really?

"For Portland homeowners unlucky enough to be dealing with a fallen tree, add in a dose of bureaucratic frustration, courtesy of Portland city government.

"The city's Urban Forestry division is requiring homeowners to get retroactive removal permits for trees that have fallen on their property due to the winter storm. The permits, which cost $100 for up to three trees, also require homeowners to plant a replacement. Notably, other cities, including Beaverton, Eugene, Gresham and Lake Oswego, are not requiring residents to secure a retroactive permit for fallen trees on their property."

Editorial: Portland should put punitive tree permit requirement on ice

You loved learning new things. You loved school and you loved your friends. Who took you that Friday June 4, 2010 from your school Kyron? Why did they take you? You didn't do anything wrong. This should never happen to a child. You didn't do anything wrong. One day justice will be served. We will never give up.

The kids who were in his class are all in college now or in their 20s. This is so freaking saddening. It's like he vanished without a trace. I reckon he is dead by now. Whenever I look at his eyes in photos I feel like this it's a weird gut feeling; his mom once said she feels like he is dead in an article i will post later. That's why I think kyron is dead. I trust a mother's intuition above everything. They can usually tell if there's something wrong with their kids.

Joeanne Cass his mother wrote that he appeared to her in a vision and that he told her that she may never find him, but that he was safe and happy with God...paraphrasing. It's in the Boy Missing book.

Shared with prayers for answers that find you Kyron and bring you back home. Praying too, that all those involved in your disappearance will be arrested and punished to the fullest extent of the law! Prayers for your parents at this very long and difficult time!

There are a few theories on what happened to Kyron. He could have wondered off into the forest and got stuck as it is really big. Or somewhere in an article said the Kyron has run out of class before, maybe someone said something to him causing him to run away. And possibly be abducted. Teri was also charged in 2015 for having firearm, this one is very very unlikely but she could have took kept Kyron (there was apperently students claiming to see Kyron with Teri, and killed and hid his body. She had garbage bags and she could have used them to bury Kyron's body. Bless Kyron, and hope he gets found soon.

Kieran McCarroll No. Terri took Kryon, period. She was seen leaving the school with him by multiple witnesses. There was blood DNA in the truck she drove that day (which she borrowed as she normally drove a very conspicuous red mustang with vanity plates). She had emails detailing her hatred for Kryon. She was in an alcohol induced psychosis at the time. She did it. No other theories. He didn't "wonder off".

Cat Poons i kinda had a feeling she would take Kyron because of the messages and the fact that she tried to get someone to kill her husband five month before his disappearance, i think she first tried to kill him and then ruin his life by taking Kyron. And also the blood too.

Our justice system failed this poor boy and his family. Everyone knows Terri is involved. Absolutely heartbreaking that there has been no developments.

Sweet boy

I'll never forget about you, sweet boy. I love seeing pictures and posts of you. It's a good reminder to keep my prayers going for your safe return home. :)

Why don't one of these well known mediums find out what has happened to him hello. If the got time to talk to celebrities then this mother and her family should have a closure one way or another.

Tina Faino very early on when Kyron went missing I sent a message to a well known psychic. He did respond and he said that the request needs to come from one of the parents out of respect for the family and also he can't comment on open cases without permission from the family. I totally respect that. Maybe that is why many won't comment publicly. Maybe psychics have been in contact with the family already and we just haven't heard about it. It's a very personal thing. I would definitely reach out myself.

We will never forget this beautiful boy and pray that he is found someday. How anyone who is guilty could still live with themselves is beyond comprehension.

Darlene Mew, what is equally baffling is the people who surround themselves around a perpetrator, and therefore support them to help cover-up their crime.

Prayers are what can really help in finding Kyron. God knows all things- He is an all-knowing God. He hears prayers from His children according to His will. Brooklyn Tabernacle church in Brooklyn is a praying church- prayer requests can be sent there and they have a prayer band around the clock. Even when something seems hopeless. praying Kyron will be found in Jesus name amen.

Why isn't anything getting done about this? How long does Kyron's mom have to beg for his return when she has been already for 14 years? Where are the officials and investigators? Kyron's life matters and I am sick and appalled of seeing how law enforcement / fbi has nothing done about this.

Today, PHB is announcing funding for affordable housing preservation, awarded to Rosemont Court (Northwest Housing Alternatives) and the Shoreline (Central City Concern) through a competitive solicitation. Together, these awards will help preserve 161 units of regulated affordable housing.

"While we continue to expand our affordable housing stock throughout Portland with the opening of more than 500 new affordable homes just last year, it is of critical importance to maintain existing affordable homes as well," said Commissioner Carmen Rubio. "Affordable housing developments like Rosemont Court and transitional housing like the Shoreline help to prevent low-income community members from falling through the cracks and onto the streets."

Janet Koreen at the very least she disappeared him. She has given a lot to remain silent about talking with the authorities about Kyron. If she was innocent she wouldn't have walked away from her own daughter and she would have helped with searches and fundraising.

Janet Koreen the law law knows it all the detectives his family anybody with common sense knows she knew there was no cameras she knew the layout of the school. She walked right out of there and murdered him. She made a fool of herself on Dr. Phil Can you hear me now TH she was never hard of hearing in one ear. Her husband Kaine Horman and her friends said all the years he was married to her She never said she had a hard hearing or anything. It was a Lie.

Mary Seaton she flat murdered him. His bones are somewhere in those Oregon

they should be found.

Mary Seaton there is no way he is alive he would be nearly 22 years old. No one took him to put him in a cave in the basement and never let him out. He was taken to be murdered because he was hated by that person as it grown man he knew his address, he knew his mother and father's name everything he would not have gone without contacting him all these years roaming the country, not knowing who he is.

It's so very sad. Knowing how a mother feels- the last kiss, the last hug, the last I love you, the last everything. Playing together, reading a book, listening to music and the simple grocery store shenanigans. Thinking together of the future planning a future holiday and what they want from Santa, Easter bunny and valentines. The baby blankets, the clothes, the favorite stuffy left behind and toys. The favorite cups, blankets... dishes they loved themed in characters... their car seat. The pillow your child lays on. Their favorite outfits, shoes and bubble bath toys. Down to their favorite foods and summertime fun at events or other. Their ambitions, their funny, silly and often stubbornness. Then, the future when they are gone and seeing everything that they would have loved and lived an amazing growing life learning and adventuring On with sports activities... All the future things that children grow up to do.. This is so tragic. Where is K yron? Why? And what happened?

Keri Wilhelm Kyron was seven when he disappeared from school that day and would currently be 21 years old. The photo on the right side of the post on January 12 is the most recent progression aged photo. It was done a couple of years ago.

Your momma thinks about you every single day Kyron. She misses you so very much. We will never give up searching for you until you are home with your family where you belong. Whoever is responsible for taking you that day will be held accountable, we promise. We will NEVER give up until justice is served.

Picking up the trash and cleaning up the city SHOULD be the easy part. But like most things with ALL layers of government right now, it's mired in bureaucracy, weak leadership and ideology over practicality.

This is a wonderful way to get folks wraparound services.

Now if you can amend this measure 110, and adopt #rickyslaw aka MANDATED DRUG TREATMENT & TREATMENT CENTERS Portland will have a chance at getting things back to normal.

The need to support Portland's film production and media industry is paramount. Portland is often sought-after for commercial shoots because of its proximity to Los Angeles, quick access to coastal and forest terrain, and streamlined permitting systems.

The film production and media industry has brought almost $700 million into the local economy over the past five years and further solidified Portland's reputation as one of the top locations to produce movies, TV shows, and commercials.

"I'm grateful the City recognizes the value of our local film industry and is taking steps to support us in a very challenging year," said Mike Neal, local film worker and co-chair of the Oregon Media Production Association's advocacy committee. "Commercials and other short-form productions have helped keep our crews and local businesses afloat during the ongoing strikes in Hollywood. The City's resolution to subsidize permit fees for commercial shoots will help local producers while also boosting Portland's image as a film-friendly city and commercial production hub."

This announcement was made possible through the collaborative efforts of Commissioner Carmen Rubio, Commissioner Dan Ryan, Oregon Media Production Association (OMPA), Oregon Film, and Portland Events and Film at Prosper Portland

We have a solution to the Blanchett
House storage issues KOIN 6 KGW-TV
KATU News

Move the City Homeless Storage Container from the entrance of the Waterfront Park to the Blanchette House.

There's several empty lots near their building that could be utilized for this container.

It doesn't make sense for it to sit next to our home when it could be doing more good for people near the facilities that they use during the day.

It will also help keep the homeless storage container workers honest, prevent drug deals from happening out of it, and make it easier for it to be serviced on a more regular basis so homeless clients aren't without bathrooms.

For those that don't know there is a homeless storage container in the entrance of the Waterfront Park that also contains two public restrooms.

This would be a great asset to the Blanchette house, and would also help alleviate issues in our neighborhood driving from mismanagement of this container.

To me, this would be a win-win

Congratulations to the latest Driving Diversity graduating cohort! This program -- funded by the City of Portland's #AmericanRescuePlan with support from Multnomah County, Oregon -- is diversifying the ranks of Portland-area garbage and recycling drivers by helping participants earn their CDL and training them to begin careers as drivers. All 16 graduates interviewed for jobs after the ceremony today. Many are hired by members of the #portlandhaulersassociation (also program partners), which includes Arrow Sanitary Service, City Sanitary Service, Elmer's Sanitary Service, Heiberg Garbage & Recycling, Portland Disposal & Recycling, Republic Services, Sunset Garbage Collection, Wacker Sanitary Service, Walker Garbage Services, and Waste Management.

Many thanks to Multnomah County, Oregon Commissioner (and Worksystems Board member!) Lori Stegmann for delivering the commencement address! Thanks also to Mayor Ted Wheeler, Commissioner Carmen Rubio, Prosper Portland, Interstate Trucking Academy Inc., SE Works, Inc., and the Portland Haulers Association for their partnership and support of this program.

Today, I was proud to represent the International School of Portland along with Beven Byrnes from Bridges Middle School, sharing the success of the Queer Affinity Village run by All Good Northwest and its Executive Director Andy Goebel.

Portland struggles with a great deal, and moments like these make our hearts grow full. None of this work is easy, but together, collaboratively, we can work to bring Portland back. As I stated, "Our mission is to break down stereotypes and empower students to take action to make the world a better and more peaceful place."

Thanks to the Safe Rest Village Team and the Portland City Council for welcoming us and celebrating this proof of concept to help the most marginalized in our community find more permanent housing.

You can see our testimony at 1:30. If you have time, start at 1:00 and view the entire presentation. The model is working.

Thanks, Jake Dornblaser, Chariti Li Montez, Kellie Torres, Commissioner Dan Ryan, Commissioner Mingus Mapps, Commissioner Carmen Rubio, Commissioner Rene Gonzalez,, and Ted Wheeler for the opportunity to share our experience.

The nature of our work at BPS requires compromise, sometimes between different factions. Today, City Council voted to adopt new zoning code ordinances that will protect the environment and allow for housing and job growth. Thanks to Commissioner Carmen Rubio, who led the process of refining these proposals into what the mayor called a "very workable compromise." Watch/listen to what our City Council had to say about the Floodplain Resilience Project:

We did it! Dekum Court's Phase I grand opening event was a success. We couldn't be more grateful to Commissioner Carmen Rubio U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, Northwest Region Metro Sen. Ron Wyden's office, and other partners for joining!

The voter approved 2018 Metro Affordable Housing Bond helped fund the redevelopment. Once completed, Dekum Court will provide affordable housing to 187 households. Home Forward is redeveloping the property in two phases to minimize disruption to current residents in 40 units.

A special thank you to all our additional partners who made this project a reality Oregon Housing and Community Services The Walsh Group Portland Housing Bureau U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, LEVER Architecture WellsFargo Chase.

This unethical, dishonest board member should be removed immediately from the PPS Board. He's taking away sports opportunities from students in an effort to enrich himself. He intentionally interfered with PPS contractual relations with PPR. His loyalties are to himself and his "non-profit." If he cons his way into getting PPS to turn its back on its own students, he will be getting paid handsomely. His organization is currently a financial failure. If he rakes in millions on this deal, he's going to be wealthy.

Politicians who he dishonestly used as supporters should speak out against his defamatory statements.

Stay strong PPS administration and board. He's already lied. He's already harmed PPS, and so has his wife – ask about the million dollar jury verdict resulting from her trying to bury race harassment in PPS. They're quite a pair.

Soooo..... TriMet did their part, but the city still refusing to clear the large portion of the camp that sits on city property.

I hope they're not waiting for these folks to just die because frankly it's been my experience that once one camper leaves another 3 takes their place.

It's been almost 3 years, or more that the city has refused to manage its hoard of drug addicts in our neighborhood..... WTF

Am I wrong

Regardless of our different political views I hope we can all agree that things aren't working the way they are, and take a good look at the current politicians that have been in office during these past five years of Portland's decline.

Portland has always been a democratic city, but never saw this much corruption, or destruction.

We are working against corrupt politicians that are fighting against the people of Portland instead of for them.

We have an inactive police force retaliating against the city of Portland for supporting black lives, and police accountability.

We have a DA who's scared to fight.

And most importantly....

We have city leaders who refuse to act.

Remember what we are seeing play out in the United States right now in a big way..... CORRUPTION, GREED, and SELF SERVING politicians..... on BOTH SIDES.

It's up to us to hold them accountable when they don't work towards the interest of the taxpayers who voted for them.

Remember that the taxpayers of Portland trusted you guys.....and you've failed them.
