The last 2 years have been hard. Quarantine | housing and economic crises | systemic racism | worsening income inequality | inadequate testing/vaccinations in vulnerable communities | climate change | gun violence. It's taken a toll, especially on those experiencing challenges.

We stand with the people of Ukraine, and with our allies around the world who are uniting against this senseless act of war

Oregon has one of the largest Slavic immigrant populations, many of whom are Ukrainian or have family ties to Ukraine.

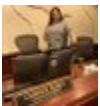

Everyone deserves safety from violence, sovereignty, freedom and the right to shelter and refuge. No matter the politics happening overseas, no matter your nationality, race, religion or gender, Portland welcomes you.

Civic Life has many resources for immigrants and refugees and their families, including information on:

- resettlement and legal services
- job training
- mental health services
- education assistance
- and more

Please share these resources with our immigrants, refugees and their families:
