Seeing the grant recipients and the amounts to be disbursed is absolutely shocking. The citizens of Portland got railroaded and we will pay the price as bad faith NGOs rake in money and further destabilize our community.

Within the RFP #2 portfolio there is robust representation of culturally specific groups implementing projects that provide a multitude of benefits to all of PCEF's priority populations. Project benefits provided to households and individual community members goes well beyond greenhouse gas reduction and includes improved indoor air quality and comfort in homes, climate resilience, reduced utility bills, training and connection to living wage jobs, access to high quality fresh foods, and connection to community. 71% of funding will go to organizations that reflect the PCEF priority populations that their projects intend to serve.

Grants and Residency for Artists

The Interstate Firehouse Cultural Center (IFCC) is a community-based arts center located in North Portland. It was founded in 1982 by Portland's first Black Commissioner and Parks' Director, Charles Jordan, and is a cultural hub for the Black community in North and Northeast Portland. As part of the City of Portland's Relief and Recovery for Artists of Color program, applications for the IFCC Grant and Residency Program are now open.

The deadline to apply is Friday, Aug. 26, at 5 p.m.

Learn more and apply, visit: portland.gov/parks/ifcc-grant

Huge thanks to our amazing @PDXParksandRec staff who helped transform Charles Jordan & East Portland Community Centers so our unhoused neighbors would have places to stay cool. And to anyone whose regular recreation was disrupted:
thank you for your patience and understanding!
